Contents

Preface 7

I. Ferenc Hopp and his Time

1. Györgyi Fajcsák: A mirror of the Orient. Image of the Far East and a few characteristics of collecting Oriental art in Hungary during the dualist era 11
2. Mária Ferenczy: The Life of Ferenc Hopp 29
3. András Nádasi: History of the Calderoni firm: The school supply business 43
4. Béla Kelényi: The Calderoni shop window 55
5. Károly Kincses: Hopp, the photographer 63
6. János Kubassek: Ferenc Hopp and geography 73
7. Eszter Gábor: The Knorr, later Hopp villa at 103 Andrássy Street – the building of the Ferenc Hopp Museum of Eastern Asiatic Arts 81
8. Béla Kelényi: A Hungarian mudra. The tomb of Ferenc Hopp 93

II. Collections of Ferenc Hopp

1. Mónika Bincsik: Ferenc Hopp's Japanese curio collection 99
2. Györgyi Fajcsák: Chinese curio trade and Ferenc Hopp's Chinese collection 117
3. Zsuzsanna Renner: Ferenc Hopp's Indian and Southeast Asian journeys and collections 137
4. Árpád Miklós Nagy: Ferenc Hopp's antiques collection 149

List of Illustrations 155