

Contents

List of Figures and Illustration	vii
Series Editor's Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
About the Author	xiii
 Introduction: Thorny Issues	 1
 1 Frame Analysis:
The Lesson of The Elementary Forms of Religious Life	11
1.0 The 'tragic competition' and the winner	11
1.2 A 'look from far-away' on modernity	12
 2 Modernity and the Rise of the Introspective Conscience	21
2.0 Fragments of a diagnosis	21
2.1 A short history of the introspective conscience	24
2.2 The person: An alternative narrative of the same story	28
2.3 Sociological consequences	34
2.4 Modernity's wager: Boundaries and contemporary strains	36
2.5 Alternative stories: Ritual and the sacred, past and present	39
 3 Society: Rituals and Traditions	41
3.0 Sociological normativity	41
3.1 Forms of social performances:
Postmodern-mystical practices and liturgical ritualism	41
3.2 The sacred 'then and now':
Religious evolution and the 'spiritual unity of mankind'	50
3.3 Beyond 'our comfortable village'	56
3.4 Liturgical ritualism and traditions	60
 4 Self-cultivation: The Individual as a Ceremonial Being	71
4.0 Self-cultivation and social norms from a
Durkheimian perspective	71
4.1 The Self, constitutive groups and willed subjection	75
4.2 Ritual reflectivity and autonomy	79
4.3 Comparative perspectives:
Rabbinic ethics and Confucianism	84

5	Politics: An Anthropological Gaze	89
5.0	Not only liberal	89
5.1	Politics and the cybernetics of the sacred	90
5.2	The many faces of the sacred: Society as a 'union of traditions' and post-liberal democracies	97
5.3	Non-Atlantic democracies	101
5.4	Political arrangements for a post-post-protestant understanding of religions	112
6	Religions: New Routes to Pluralism	117
6.0	Laïcité : The European exception	117
6.1	The (particularistic) socio-philosophical presuppositions of the European exception	119
6.2	New routes to pluralism: Laïcité as a cooperative practice	120
6.3	The mark of particularity: Post-liberal approaches to religious pluralism	131
	Conclusion: Durkheim debut du siècle	135
	Bibliography	143
	Index	159

List of Figures and Illustration

Illustration

Jacques Lipchitz, Mother and Child , 1949	xv
--	----

Figures

3.1	An analytical interaction ritual	48
5.1	The cybernetics of the holy	92