

Contents

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xiii
Introduction	1
PART I. THEORETICAL REFLECTIONS
1. Reflections on the Concept of Modernity	15
2. Reflections on the Concept of Religion	34
3. Key Questions and Methodological Preliminaries	50
PART II. RELIGIOUS DECLINE IN WESTERN EUROPE?
Introduction	65
4. Between Dechurchification and Religious Persistence: West Germany	73
5. A Stronghold of Catholicism: Italy	143
6. Religion in Free Fall: The Netherlands	163
Conclusion	189
PART III. RELIGIOUS RENAISSANCE IN EASTERN EUROPE?
Introduction	207
7. Russia: Return of Religion	215
8. East Germany: No Signs of a Turnaround	237
9. Poland: Unexpected Vitality after the Fall of Communism	251
Conclusion	273
PART IV. RELIGIOUS CHANGE OUTSIDE EUROPE: THREE CASE STUDIES
Introduction	285
10. Religion and Religiosity in the US: A Contrasting Case to Europe?	287
11. South Korea: The Simultaneity of Modernization and Christianization	339

12. Charismatic, Pentecostal, and Evangelical Movements in Europe, the US, and Brazil	356
--	-----

PART V. SYSTEMATIC PERSPECTIVES

13. Macro- and Microsociological Explanations for Differences between Countries	391
14. Patterns and Determinants of Religious Change in the Modern Period: Towards a Multi-Paradigmatic Theory	412

Bibliography	437
Index	475