

Contents

Introduction Max Deeg	1
Buddha's Birth and Reassessment of the Archaeological Evidence Giovanni Verardi	19
Prior to Birth The Tuṣita episodes in Indian Buddhist literature and art Christian Luczanits	41
Why is the Buddha Riding on an Elephant? The Bodhisattva's Conception and the Change of Motive Max Deeg	93
On Some Late Records About the Buddha's Birth and Genealogy Michael Hahn	129
The Deva with the Swaddling Cloth – On the Western Origins of Gandhāran Birth Iconography and Their Implications for the Textual and Art History of the Buddhist Saviour's Nativity Martina Stoye	157
The Lady under the tree A visual pattern from Māyā to the Tārā and Avalokiteśvara Claudine Bautze-Picron	193
Visionary Consecration: A Meditative Reenactment of the Buddha's Birth Nobuyoshi Yamabe	239

The Birth of the Buddha in the Chinese Anthologies of the Early Sixth Century Hubert Durt	277
The Birth of the Buddha and Related Episodes as Represented in Chinese Art Nicoletta Celli	305
The Birth of the Buddha in Korean Buddhism: Infant Buddha Images and the Ritual Bathing Juhyung Rhi	321
Lumbini: liturgy and devotion Peter Skilling	345
The Narrative of the Birth of the Buddha as Told by Bskal-bzang Chos-kyi Rgya-mtsho (15 th Century) Franz-Karl Erhard	355
Plates and Figures	377