

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
------------------------------	-----

Introduction: New Cultural-Identitarian Political Movements in South Asia, the Middle East and Northern Africa Rachid Ouaisa and Sebastian Schwecke	1
---	---

SECTION I

1 Algeria's Islamists in Times of Political Change – An Exceptional Case? Rachid Ouaisa	15
2 The Trivialisation of Hindu Nationalism and the Reconfiguration of the Indian Bourgeoisie Sebastian Schwecke	33

SECTION II

3 Globalisation and Islamic Radicalism in the Arab Gulf Region Mary Ann Tétreault	57
4 The Economic Ideology of Hasan al-Banna and the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood Ivesa Lübben	75
5 The AKP or the Success of a Hybrid Gérard Groc	105
6 Similarities and Differences in the Strategies and Programmes of the BJP and the Congress in India Randhir B. Jain	121
7 Power Games or Programmatic Evolution in the BJP Klaus Julian Voll	131

SECTION III

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 8  | Middle Classes and New Cultural-Identitarian Political Movements: PerspectivesHartmut Elsenhans                  | 143 |
| 9  | How to Build a Viable Economic Policy on Islamic Foundations: The Case of the MSP Party, AlgeriaAbdelkrim Dahmen | 163 |
| 10 | The Bharatiya Janata Party: Identitarianism and Governance AgendaRajvir Sharma                                   | 183 |

SECTION IV

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 11 | Rivalry, Failure of the Secular Nationalists, Geography, History: Embedding the Rising New Cultural-Identitarian Movements in Africa and Asia in the Emerging Multipolar SystemHartmut Elsenhans | 205 |
|    | Bibliography   | 225 |
|    | Index  | 253 |