

Contents

list of Maps, Figures and Tables	vii
Note on Transliteration	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
Chapter One - The Shi'a and Lebanon	9
The Emergence of a Shi'a Identity: Historical Background	9
Establishment of the Shi'a in Lebanon	13
Development of Leadership Systems in Lebanon	16
The Role of the Shi'a within the Indigenous Leadership	19
Institutional Political Development in Lebanon during the Late Ottoman Period	25
Mandatory Power and the Creation of the Republic	29
The 1932 Census and the National Pact	30
The Population Movements of the 1960s	32
An Overview of Early Shi'a Political Development	34
Chapter Two - The Rise and Fall of the Traditional Zu'ama	37
The Nature of the Za'im	37
Background to the Lebanese Zu'ama	39
Political Motivation of the Zu'ama	44
Ottoman-Era Political Involvement in Formal Institutions	45
Arab and Lebanese Nationalism and the Zu'ama	47
Lebanese versus Syrian Nationalism	50
Adoption of Formal Political Institutions during the Mandatory Period	53
Zu'ama, Political Parties and Alliance Building	59
Political Threats to the Zu'ama	61
Decline of the Zu'ama	71
The Civil War and the Traditional Zu'ama	77
The Future of the Shi'a Zu'ama in Post Civil War Lebanon	80

Chapter Three - An Alternative Path: Shi'a Participation in

Political Parties	87
The Place of Political Parties.	87
Pre-Independence Political Parties.	89
Independence and Political Parties.	91
Syrian and Arab Nationalist Parties.	95
The Radical Leftist Parties.	99
Political Parties during the Civil War.	106
The Creation of Amal.	107
The Development of Hizbullah.	113
Political Parties in the Post Civil War Environment.	118
Amal in the Post Civil War Environment.	118
Hizbullah in Contemporary Lebanon.	122
Shi'a and Other Political Parties After Ta'if.	127

Chapter Four - The Emergent Leadership: Political Participation of the Clergy

The Role of Shi'a Clerics.	133
Early Shi'a jurists in Modern-Day Lebanon.	136
Influences on 'Amili Scholars.	139
The Influence of Non-Lebanese Intellectuals.	142
Lebanese Shi'a 'Ulama Activism.	147
The Political Ideologues.	151
Clerical Political Leaders.	158
The 'Ulama and Political Groups.	164

Conclusion 173

Notes. 179

Index. 195