

Contents

Preface	v
Notes on Contributors	ix
1. Making Human Rights Intelligible: An Introduction to a Sociology of Human Rights.....	1
Mikael Rask Madsen and Gert Verschraegen
PART I – SOCIOLOGICAL UNDERSTANDINGS OF HUMAN RIGHTS
2. State Building, Constitutional Rights and the Social Construction of Norms: Outline for a Sociology of Constitutions.....	25
Chris Thornhill
3. Differentiation and Inclusion: A Neglected Sociological Approach to Fundamental Rights	61
Gert Verschraegen
4. Beyond Prescription: Towards a Reflexive Sociology of Human Rights.....	81
Mikael Rask Madsen
5. Human Rights between Brute Fact and Articulated Aspiration.....	105
Paul Stenner
6. International Human Rights versus Democracy Promotion: On Two Different Meanings of Human Rights in US Foreign Policy	127
Nicolas Guilhot
7. Towards a Socio-legal Analysis of the European Convention on Human Rights.....	149
Steven Greer
8. In Defence of Societies	173
Judith Blau and Alberto Moncada
PART II – HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE TRANSFORMATION OF KEY INSTITUTIONS OF MODERN SOCIETY
9. From Citizenship to Human Rights to Human Rights Education.....	191
Francisco O Ramirez and Rennie Moon

10. (Human) Rights and Solidarity: Restructuring the National Welfare Space	215
Frederik Thuesen
11. Adapting Locally to International Health and Human Rights Standards: An Alternative Theoretical Framework for Progressive Realisation	233
Lesley A Jacobs
12. 'Legal Form' and the Purchase of Human Rights Discourse in Domestic Policy-Making: The Achievement of Same-Sex Marriage in Canada	247
Luke McNamara
13. Activating the Law: Exploring the Legal Responses of NGOs to Gross Rights Violations	267
Loveday Hodson
14. The Complexities of Human Rights Implementation within the Costa Rican Police System	283
Quirine Eijkman
Index	301