

Contents

Introduction	1
Renate Bridenthal
1. Dirty Politics or “Harmonie?” Defining Corruption in Early Modern Amsterdam and Hamburg	23
Mary Lindemann
2. A Crisis of Charter and Right: Piracy and Colonial Resistance in Seventeenth-Century Rhode Island	54
Douglas R. Burgess, Jr.
3. The First War on Drugs: Tobacco Trafficking, Criminality, and the Fiscal State in Eighteenth-Century France	76
Michael Kwass
4. Befitting Bedfellows: Yakuza and the State in Modern Japan	98
Eiko Maruko Siniawer
5. Mobilizing Convict Bodies: Indian Convict Workers in Southeast Asia in the Early Nineteenth Century	123
Anand Yang
6. The Underside of Overseas Chinese Society in Southeast Asia	149
Carl A. Trocki
7. A Historical Perspective on State Engagement in Informal Trade on the Uganda-Congo Border	171
Kristof Titeca
8. The Narcobourgeoisie and State Making in Colombia: More Coercion, Less Democratic Governance	196
Nazih Richani

9. Russia's Gangster Capitalism: Portent for Contemporary States? Patricia Rawlinson	216
10. Economic Crime and Neoliberal Modes of Government: The Example of the Mediterranean Béatrice Hibou	237
Notes on Contributors	263
Index	267