

SANDER L. GILMAN

JEWISH SELF-HATRED

ANTI-SEMITISM AND
THE HIDDEN LANGUAGE
OF THE JEWS

The Johns Hopkins University Press
BALTIMORE AND LONDON

Contents

Preface ix

CHAPTER ONE

What Is Self-hatred? 1

CHAPTER TWO

The Drive for Conversion 22

- I. The Special Language of the Jews 22
- II. The Converts and the Jews' Books 28
- III. The Christian Reaction and the Origin of Jewish Self-hatred 42
- IV. The Self-hatred of the Convert 53
- V. Luther's Judaeophobia and the Jewish Convert 57

CHAPTER THREE

The Spirit of Toleration 68

- I. The Language of Thieves 68
- II. The Discourse of the Jews 87
- III. Language and Identity 98
- IV. The Creation of the Schlemiel 107
- V. Living Schlemiels 114

CHAPTER FOUR

The Drive for Assimilation 139

- I. The Secret Tongue of the Jews 139
- II. The Rhetoric of Self-hatred: Börne 148
- III. The Farceur: Heine's Ambivalence 167
- IV. The Child Convert: Karl Marx 188

CHAPTER FIVE

The Science of Race 209

- I. The Linguistics of Anti-Semitism 209
- II. Toward a Philosophy of Language 219
- III. Toward a Psychology of Language 243
- IV. The Invention of the Eastern Jew 270
- V. The Development of the Concept of Self-hatred 286

CHAPTER SIX

The Ashes of the Holocaust and the Closure of Self-hatred 309

- I. The Language of Silence 309
- II. The Language of Survival and the Projection of Self-hatred 325
- III. The Dead Child Speaks: Reading *The Diary of
Anne Frank* 345
- IV. The Language of the Mad 360
- V. Closure 383

Notes 393

Index 447