

SOCIETY FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Anthropological Perspectives on the South Asian Household

Edited by

JOHN N. GRAY
DAVID J. MEARNs

SAGE Publications
New Delhi/Newbury Park/London

Contents

Acknowledgements	8
Foreword T.N. Madan	9
Introduction	13
Household and Domestic Group—Society from the Inside Out John N. Gray and David J. Mearns
1. Studying the Household: Individuation and Values Ursula Sharma	35
2. The Joint Family Household in Rural Rajasthan: Ecological, Cultural and Demographic Conditions for its Occurrence Pauline Kolenda	55
3. Household Form and Formation: Variability and Social Change among South Indian Muslims Sylvia Vatuk	107
4. The Household in Nepal: Social and Experiential Crucible of Society John N. Gray	140
5. Subjection and the Domicile: Some Problematic Issues Relating to High Caste Nepalese Women Vivienne Kondos	162
6. Households in Akkaraipattu: Dowry and Domestic Organisation among the Matrilineal Tamils and Moors of Sri Lanka Dennis McGilvray	192
7. Households and Social Identity: Domestic Group, Domestic Space and Ritual Contexts Amongst Indians in Malaysia David J. Mearns	236
Notes on Contributors	260
Index	262