

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	ix
Barbara A. Hanawalt and Kathryn L. Reyerson
Part I. Ritual Significance in Municipal and Royal Politics
1. Configurations of the Community in Late Medieval Spectacles: Paris and London during the Dual Monarchy	3
Lawrence M. Bryant
2. Civic Liturgies and Urban Records in Northern France, 1100–1400	34
Brigitte Bedos-Rezak
3. La grant feste : Philip the Fair's Celebration of the Knighting of His Sons in Paris at Pentecost of 1313	56
Elizabeth A. R. Brown and Nancy Freeman Regalado
Part II. Public and Private Religious Expression in the Urban Context
4. Icons, Altarpieces, and Civic Ritual in Siena Cathedral, 1100–1530	89
Bram Kempers
5. The Liturgy of the Count's Advent in Bruges, from Galbert to Van Eyck	137
James M. Murray
6. The Spectacle of Suffering in Spanish Streets	153
Maureen Flynn

Part III. Harmony and Dissonance in the Urban Ceremonial Community

7. Ceremony and Oligarchy: The London Midsummer Watch
Sheila Lindenbaum 171
8. Unity or Division? The Social Meaning of Guild Ceremony in Urban Communities
Benjamin R. McRee 189
9. The Politics of Welcome: Ceremonies and Constitutional
Development in Later Medieval English Towns
Lorraine Attreed 208

Part IV. The Political Overtones of Public Entertainment

10. The Duke and His Towns: The Power of Ceremonies,
Feasts, and Public Amusement in the Duchy of Guelders
(East Netherlands) in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries
Gerard Nijsten 235
11. In the Pit of the Burgundian Theater State: Urban
Traditions and Princely Ambitions in Ghent, 1360–1420
David Nicholas 271
12. Elite and Popular Culture in Late Fifteenth-Century
Castilian Festivals: The Case of Jaén
Teofilo F. Ruiz 296

Contributors 319

Index 323