

contents

introduction, 1

one

theoretical orientations, 4

two

Action Systems and Social Systems. The Concept of Society. The Subsystems of Society. Modes of Integration in Increasingly Differentiated Societies. Processes of Evolutionary Change.

pre-modern foundations of modern societies, 29

three

Early Christianity. The Institutional Heritage of Rome. Medieval Society. The Differentiation of the European System. Renaissance and Reformation.

the first crystallization of the modern system, 50

four

The Northwest. Conclusion.

counterpoint and
further development:
the age of revolutions, 71

five

The Differentiation of Europe in the Age of Revolutions. The Industrial Revolution. The Democratic Revolution.

the new lead society
and contemporary modernity, 86

six

*The Structure of the Societal Community. The Educational Revolution and the Contemporary Phase of Modernization. Pattern Maintenance and Societal Community. Polity and Societal Community.
Economy and Societal Community. Conclusion.*

new counterpoints, 122

seven

The Soviet Union. The "New Europe." Modernization of Non-Western Societies.

conclusion:
the main pattern, 138

eight

selected references, 144
index, 147