

CONTENTS

Series Foreword	vii
Contributors	ix
Introduction: On Being a Problem in America CHESTER J. FONTENOT, JR.	1
W.E.B. Du Bois's View of the Southwest Georgia Black Belt, Illustrated with Photographs by A. Radclyffe Dugmore LEE W. FORMWALT	11
Riddle Me This: Du Bois, the Sphinx, and the Crisis of Identity DOLAN HUBBARD	26
Confluence, Confirmation, and Conservation at the Crossroads: Intersecting Junctures in "The Interesting Narrative of the Life and The Souls of Black Folk " WILFRED D. SAMUELS	45
Racial Capitalism in a Global Economy: The Double Consciousness of Black Business in the Economic Philosophy of W.E.B. Du Bois JULIET E. K. WALKER	70
The Sweetness of His Strength: Du Bois, Teddy Roosevelt, and the Black Soldier LT. COL. MARK BRALEY	97
W.E.B. Du Bois and the Intersection of Race and Sex in the Twenty-First Century RUFUS BURROW	122
The Sentimental Du Bois: Genre, Race, and the Reading Public BILL HARDWIG	142

As I Face America: Race and Africanity in Du Bois's The Souls of Black Folk KWAKU LARBI KORANG	166
W.E.B. Du Bois: More Man Than Meets The Eye KALAMU YA SALAAM	187