
CHAPTER 1. The Seaport

I

CHAPTER 2. Colonists

12

*The Origins of American Slavery • Transport
• Perpetual Enslavement • Nonslaves •
The Origins of an Afro-American Culture*

Portsmouth and the Slave Trade

16

Cities and Numbers of Africans in Early New England

Sale of Enslaved People

19

Method and Location of Slave Sales in Portsmouth • Auction • Enslaved People in Stoodley's Household

White Fears, Regulation, and Legislation

22

*Protective Legislation • Restriction •
Avoiding Public Expense • White Confusion,
Separation, and Differentiation*

One Negro Man £200, One Ditto Woman
£50: Location, Labor, Value

25

*Relationships, Authority, Location, and Work
• Placing a Cash Value on People*

Skilled Craftspeople

27

Adam, Mercer, and Bess Marshall • Nero, Cato, and Jane Wheelwright • A Tailor •

Hopestill Cheswell • Primus Fowle • Craftswomen, Craftsmen, and Local Myth
Fortune and James: Invisibility	37
Tavern Work • Fortune • James • A Curiosity
Hannah, Pomp, Nanne, Violet, Scipio: Agricultural Work	40
A Rural Slave Burial Ground • People Enslaved by the Langdons • Africans on the Farm • Further Reflections
Quamino, Prince, Nero, a Negro Girl, Cato, Peter, John Jack, and Phyllis: The Role of Slavery among the White Colonial Elite	43
The Macpheadris Household • The Wentworth Household • The Warner Household • The Role of Slavery among the White Elite
Venus: Decoding Clues	46
What's in a Name?
North Church People: Status and Religion	48
Rank, Location, Change, and White Ambivalence • Withholding the Message and Its Effects • Churches in New England • Black Church Members and African Tradition
Nero Brewster, Willie Clarkson, Jock Odiorne, Pharaoh Shores: Black Coronations, Internal Status, and Social Control	52
White Participation and Perceptions • Black Participation and Perspectives • A Tradition Ends

The Unnamed, Unrecorded Dead: Health, Medicine, Death, Burial	55
Age and Causes of Death • African Medicine
• Burial Customs, Black and White •
Discontinuance of the Negro Burying Ground
The Cotton and Hunking Families: Family, Women, Marriage	60
Marriage and Alternatives • A New Status for African Women in America
Revolutionary Petitioners: Politics and Freedom	63
Origins and Authorship of the Petition •
Revolutionary Rhetoric • A Recent British Court Case • Outcome
Prince Whipple: Revolution and Freedom	67
Black and White Whipples in the Revolution •
Africans in the Revolution
Free Black People in an Era of Slavery	70
Self-Emancipation: A Sample Case •
Documenting Freedom
The Long-Range Impacts of the Slave System	73
<hr/>
CHAPTER 3. Early Americans	75
Dismantling Slavery • A Nation in Motion, Cities in Change • Exclusion • Numbers and Location of Black People in Portsmouth • Occupations
“3 Very Old Negroes Almost Good for Nothing”: The Plight of the Elderly in Freedom	85
White Alternatives to Liability
Prince, Cuffee, Dinah, and Rebecca Whipple: A Sample Family Living in Freedom	87
Prince Whipple as Caleb Quotem • Cuffee Whipple and Black Music Making • Dinah Chase Whipple • Rebecca Daverson Whipple
• The Next Generation

Siras Bruce and Flora Stoodley Bruce:
New Freedom, Limited Options	94
Siras Gets Married • Envisioning Work • A Place to Live
Pomp and Candace Spring: A Glimpse of Home and Home Life	98
A House Tour
Dinah Gibson: Making It on Her Own	105
Richard Potter: Making an Itinerant Living in Entertainment	106
Black Marines of Portsmouth: Life at Sea and at Home	109
Effects of Racism on Maritime Employment
Esther Whipple Mullinaux: Kinship and Cluster Diffusion	114
<hr/>
CHAPTER 4. Abolition	119
Slavery and the Constitution • Abolition • Abolition and Religion • Antislavery Organization in New Hampshire and Portsmouth • The Legislative Backdrop
Portsmouth's Continued Participation in Slavery	126
Consumer Goods • Continued Slave Trading
Frederick Douglass, Charles Lenox Remond, William Wells Brown: Black Abolitionist Orators and the Civil War Years in Portsmouth	129
Frederick Douglass's First Visit to Portsmouth • Charles Lenox Remond • Frederick Douglass Returns to Portsmouth • William Wells Brown • Riot in 1863 • Riot in 1865
"Most of the Colored People of the City, Both Old and Young": Celebrating Emancipation	139

Regionalism in Black Communities •

Migration and Its Effects

People's Baptist Church: Spiritual Life, Religious Community

145

*Denominational Appeal • Antecedent Black
Churches • Beginnings and Leaders of People's Baptist Church • Alternatives • Transformation*

Deacon Haywood Burton: Community Leader

152

George M. King, Ralph Reed, Albert
Aaylor: Social Clubs and Political Action

153

*Our Boys' Comfort/Lincoln American
Community Club • The Knights of Pythias •
The Colored Citizens League • The Black
Masons*

The Klan in Portsmouth

159

Louis George Gregory and Louisa
Matthews Gregory: Spiritual Leaders for Racial Unity

162

A New Home

Elizabeth Virgil: Quiet Pioneer, Witness to a Changing World

163

*A Pioneer Student, and Employment •
Making a Home, Pursuing Interests •
Another Who Went South*

Owen Finnigan Cooper, Eugene Reid, John Ramsay, Emerson Reed, Doris Moore,
Anna Jones: World War II and Patriotic
Service

166

*Black Americans, the Military, and Wartime
Employment • Wartime Work in Portsmouth •
The Home Front Battlefield*

Rosary Broxay Cooper: Migration, Career
Options, Patriotic Service

169

Wartime Work

CHAPTER 6. Civil Rights 174

Legislation and Responses

Lost Boundaries, Broken Barriers 178

Inspired by . . .

Thomas Cobbs: Making a Living, Making a Difference 180

A Sample Action • Further Afield

Legislating Destruction: Government Policy and the Black Experience 185

Further Developments on the National Level

Working Together, Seeking Understanding: The Seacoast Council on Race and Religion 188

Religion, Ecumenism, and Civil Rights

CHAPTER 7. Living with Diversity 193

Public Celebrations of Identity • Commercial Images of Identity • Urban Developments • White Reactions • Portsmouth since 1970 • Black Experience in Late-Twentieth-Century Portsmouth • Revival of Portsmouth's NAACP • Social, Fraternal, and Action Groups • Preserving Stories—an Oral History Project • The African American Resource Center • The Portsmouth Blues Festival • The Martin Luther King Holiday in New Hampshire • The Klan—Again • The Diversity Committee • The Black Heritage Trail • Ongoing in Portsmouth

Coffins under the Street: An Afterword 210

Appendix: Places Associated with Narratives in This Book 213

Notes 223

Bibliography 251

Index 259