

Contents

Contributors

xiii

PART I

1. The Defiance of Defiance and Liberation for the Victims of History: Ashis Nandy in Conversation with Vinay Lal edited with an introduction and notes by Vinay Lal 3

PART II

Writings by Ashis Nandy

2. The After-Life of the Raj in Indian Academe 97
3. How I Stopped Worrying and Started Loving the Babus 116
4. A Report on the Present State of Health of the Gods and Goddesses in South Asia 127
5. Themes of State, History, and Exile in South Asian Politics: Modernity and The Landscape of Clandestine and Incommunicable Selves 151
6. The Decline in the Imagination of the Village 176
7. The Fantastic India-Pakistan Battle: Or the Future of the Past in South Asia 186
8. The Philosophy of Coca-Cola 201
9. The Fear of Plague: The Inner Demons of a Society 205

PART III

Critical Perspectives on Ashis Nandy

10. The A B C D (and E) of Ashis Nandy
Ziauddin Sardar 211

11. In the Interstices of Tradition and Modernity: Exploring Ashis Nandy's Clandestine and Incommunicable Selves Makarand Paranjape	233
12. The Modern Indian Intellectual and the Problems of the Past: An Engagement with the Thoughts of Ashish Nandy Dipesh Chakrabarty	249
13. Reading Ashis Nandy: The Return of the Past; or Modernity with a Vengeance Arif Dirlik	260
14. Evasions of the Postmodern Desire Roby Rajan	287
15. Ashis Nandy and Globalist Discourse Frederick Buell	309
16. Cricket and Modernity Peter Wollen	334
Selected Bibliography, 1979-98, of the Writings of Ashis Nandy Compiled by Vinay Lal	345