

Contents

About the Authors	vii
Introduction: Reading Pop(ular) Cult(ural) Stud(ie)s
Steve Redhead	1
Theory I	5
1    Pearls and Swine: Intellectuals and the Mass Media
Simon Frith and Jon Savage	7
2    Over-the-counter-culture: Retheorizing Resistance in Popular Culture
Beverly Best	18
Commentaries	37
3    'Organized Disorder': The Changing Space of the Record Shop
Will Straw	39
4    Spatial Politics: A Gendered Sense of Place
Cressida Miles	48

5	Let's All Have a Disco? Football, Popular Music and Democratization Adam Brown	61
6	Rave Culture: Living Dream or Living Death? Simon Reynolds	84
7	Fear and Loathing in Wisconsin Sarah Champion	94
8	The House Sound of Chicago Hillegonda Rietveld	106
9	Cocaine Girls Marek Kohn	119
10	In the Supermarket of Style Ted Polhemus	130
11	Love Factory: The Sites, Practices and Media Relationships of Northern Soul Katie Milestone	134
12	DJ Culture Dave Haslam	150
	Plates Patrick Henry	163
	Theory II	165
13	The Post-subculturalist David Muggleton	167
14	Reaping Pop: The Press, the Scholar and the Consequences of Popular Cultural Studies Steve Jones	186
15	Re-placing Popular Culture Lawrence Grossberg	199
	Index	220