

CONTENTS

List of figures	vii
Notes on contributors	ix
1 Introduction Geoffrey Scarre, Cornelius Holtorf and Andreas Pantazatos	1
PART I
Things 'r' us: archaeological heritage as a preserver of social identity	11
2 Cultural heritage, minorities and self-respect Jonathan Seglow	13
3 Ancient places, new arrivals and the ethics of residence Paul Gilbert	27
4 Foreign and native soils: migrants and the uses of landscape Robert Seddon	39
5 Changing demographics and cultural heritage in Northern Europe: transforming narratives and identifying obstacles – a case study from Oslo, Norway Christopher Prescott	52
6 Lasting value? Engaging with the material traces of America's undocumented migration "problem" Jason De León and Cameron Gokee	70

PART II

Memory, migrants and museums 87

- 7 Concord migrations 89
Ivan Gaskell
- 8 Affiliative reterritorialization: the Manco Capac monument and the Japanese community in Peru 110
Helaine Silverman
- 9 Heritage, participant perspective, epistemic injustice, immigrants and identity formation 128
Andreas Pantazatos

PART III

Cultural heritage as an agent of integration 145

- 10 What is cross-cultural heritage? Challenges in identifying the heritage of globalized citizens 147
Laia Colomer and Cornelius Holtorf
- 11 The uses of heroes: justice, Alexander, and the Macedonian naming dispute 165
Michael Blake
- 12 Archaeological heritage and migration: well-being, place, citizenship and the social 178
Margarita Díaz-Andreu
- 13 'Everybody's different – and yet we're all the same': a transcultural project in a multicultural class 195
Cynthia Dunning Thierstein
- 14 The place of the migrant: heritage and ethics in the transnational space of a Sydney park 211
Denis Byrne
- 15 Sharing history: migration, integration and a post-heritage future 228
Johan Hegardt