

Contents

On the Series — V

Holger Weiss

- 1 Locating the Global: Articulations, Encounters, and Interactions — 1

Part I: Translocality

Edgar Pereira and Kaarle Wirta

- 2 A Forgotten Emporium: Commercial Aspirations and Transnational Mercantile Networks in Seventeenth-Century Glückstadt — 17

Måns Jansson

- 3 Global Materials, Contact Zones, and Imitation: The Making of Metal Commodities in Eighteenth-Century Sweden — 41

Hanna Hodacs

- 4 Coffee and Coffee Surrogates in Sweden: A Local, Global, and Material History — 73

Kalle Kananoja

- 5 Circulating Heterodox Medicine: Globalizing and Localizing Naturopathy in Interwar Finland — 95

Göran Rydén and Chris Evans

- 6 Stocktaking at Christiansborg: Metals and Slaves in the Danish Atlantic Trade at the Mid-Eighteenth Century — 117

Sven Olofsson

- 7 Copper on the Move: A Commodity Chain between Sweden and France, 1720–1790 — 147

Part II: Identity, Globalities, and their Local Articulations

Emil Kaukonen and Mats Wickström

- 8 Encountering Mid-Eighteenth Century Morocco from Below: Slavery, Race, and Religion in two Scandinavian Captivity Narratives — 177

Patrik Hettula

- 9 Eurafrican Mobility and Encounters with Race, ca. 1880–1920 — 203

Holger Weiss

- 10 Muslim Scholars Living in Three Worlds: West African Muslims and the Imposition of the European Colonial Order — 231

Part III: Spatial Approaches to Politics

Ivan Sablin

- 11 Russia in the Global Parliamentary Moment, 1905–1918: Between a Subaltern Empire and an Empire of Subalterns — 257

Fredrik Petersson

- 12 A Neutral Place? Anti-Colonialism, Peace, and Revolution in Stockholm, 1917 — 283

Lars Folke Berge

- 13 Ethiopia in Swedish Press in the Run-up to the Italo-Ethiopian War, 1935/36 — 315

Part IV: Temporal and Spatial Forms of Knowledge Organization

Johanna Skurnik

- 14 Cartographic Histories of the Western Territorialization of Northern Australia, 1840s–1900s: Global Circuits of Knowledge and the Mapmakers' Craft — 331

Laura Hollsten

- 15 National History and Big History: Väinö Auer, the Finnish Nationalist and the Global Environmentalist — 359

Part V: The Construction of Temporary and Permanent Representational Spaces and Memory Spaces

Taina Syrjämaa

- 16 Global Hubs on the Move: Nineteenth-Century World's Fairs
as Spaces of Imagining the World — 381

Christina Romlid

- 17 Visualizing Sweden at the 1937 World Fair in Paris — 397

Leila Koivunen

- 18 National Museums and the Wider World: The Exclusion of Non-Western Collections at the National Museum of Finland — 425

Jon Olav Hove

- 19 A Contested Global Memory Space: The Establishment of the National Museum of Ghana — 449

List of Contributors — 473

Index — 479