

CONTENTS

Contributors	vii
Introduction Catherine Evans Davies	1
Part 1 Frameworks
1 The Discursive Framing of Phonological Acts of Identity: Welshness through English Nikolas Coupland	19
2 A Sociolinguistics of "Double-Consciousness": English and Ethnicity in the Black Experience Alamin A. Mazrui	49
3 Basic English, Chinglish, and Translocal Dialect Yunte Huang	75
Part 2 Representations
4 Representing Jewish Identity through English Cynthia Goldin Bernstein	107
5 Linguistic Displays of Identity Among Dominicans in National and Diasporic Settings Almeida Jacqueline Toribio	131
Part 3 Contexts
6 Speaking for Ourselves: Indigenous Cultural Integrity and Continuance Simon J. Ortiz	159
7 English and the Construction of Aboriginal Identities in the Eastern Canadian Arctic Donna Patrick	167

8	Constructing a Diaspora Identity in English: The Case of Sri Lankan Tamils A. Suresh Canagarajah	191
Part 4 Connections
9	Teaching English among Linguistically Diverse Students John Baugh	217
10	Playing with Race in Transnational Space: Rethinking Mestizaje Marcia Farr	229
11	African American Vernacular English: Roots and Branches John R. Rickford	259
12	Race and Ethnicity in the English-Speaking World Janina Brutt-Griffler	277
	Index	301