

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Presenting Jews to America	i
1. Spiritual Missions after the Great War: The Reform Movement and the Jewish Chautauqua Society	ii
2. The Ghetto and Beyond: The Rising Authority of American Jewish Social Science in Interwar America	34
3. The Sacred and Sociological Dilemma of Jewish Inter-marriage	53
4. Serving the Public Good and Serving God in 1940s America	73
5. Constructing an Ethnic America: Oscar Handlin, Nathan Glazer, and Post-World War II Social Research	93
6. What Is a Jew? Missionaries, Outreach, and the Cold War Ethnic Challenge	119
7. A Jewish Marilyn Monroe and the Civil-Rights-Era Crisis in Jewish Self-Presentation	143
Conclusion: Speaking of Jews	168
Notes	175
Selected Bibliography	235
Index	253

Illustrations

1. Kaufmann Kohler and the editors of the Jewish Publication Society's Hebrew Bible	16
2. Charter of the Jewish Chautauqua Society	26
3. Louis Wirth	43
4. Morris Raphael Cohen and Albert Einstein	47
5. David Sarnoff and Louis Finkelstein	82
6. Oscar Handlin	100
7. Nathan Glazer	104
8. Morris Kertzer	131
9. Taping Tell Thy Son	137
10. Marilyn Monroe's conversion certificate	146
11. Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller's wedding reception	147
12. Arthur Miller, Marilyn Monroe, and Robert Goldberg	150