

What We See

Reconsidering an Anthropometrical Collection from Southern Africa: Images, Voices, and Versioning

EDITED BY ANETTE HOFFMANN

BASLER AFRIKA BIBLIOGRAPHIEN

Contents

Acknowledgements	1
Introduction	4

Making of Casts	18
------------------------------	----

Anette Hoffmann: Widerspenstige Stimmen – Unruly Voices	22
---	----

Ruth Sonderegger: What one does (not) hear. Approaching canned voices through Rancière	58
--	----

Esther Peeren: Seeing more (Hi)Stories: Versioning as a Resignificatory Practice in the What We See Exhibition and the Work of Sanell Aggenbach and Mustafa Maluka	84
---	----

Portraits: Andreas Goliath	104
Haneb	106
Lena	108
Wilfred Tijjueza	110
Isaak Witbooi	112

Anette Hoffmann: Finding Words (of Anger)	114
--	-----

Showing of Casts	146
-------------------------------	-----

Udo Krautwurst: The Joy of Looking: Early German Anthropology, Photography and Audience Formation	148
--	-----

Martin Legassick & Ciraj Rassool: South African Museums and Human Remains	182
---	-----

Fiona Clayton: Bones of Conflict	204
---	-----

Biographical Information	218
List of Abbreviations	222
Visual Material	223
Bibliography	226