

Shifting Sands

Bedouin Women at the Crossroads

DR. RUTH WESTHEIMER
&
GIL SEDAN

Lantern Books • New York

A Division of Booklight Inc.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|   |             |
|---|-------------|
| Acknowledgments                                 | xi   |
| Introduction                                    | xvii |
| The Bedouin in Israel                           | I    |
| Recognized and Unrecognized                     | II   |
| Boys and Girls                                  | 23   |
| The Bedouin Home                                | 31   |
| Temptations of the Outside World                | 35   |
| The Hafla                                | 38   |
| Marriage  | 44   |
| Bedouin Women's Sexuality                       | 52   |
| Children  | 55   |
| Bigamy and Polygamy                             | 57   |
| Honor Killing                                   | 85   |
| "Hardly a Day Passes that I Don't Get Beaten"   | 89   |
| Women and Islam                                 | 100  |
| The Ship of the Desert                          | 105  |
| Women Seeking Education                         | 115  |
| Rebellious Women: Young Women Challenge the Men | 119  |
| Women as Community Leaders                      | 146  |
| The Desert Revolution: Prospects and Perils     | 162  |
| Notes   | 171  |