

Social Movements An Introduction

Donatella della Porta and Mario Diani

Universitätsbibliothek
Frankfurt am Main

Universitätsbibliothek
Frankfurt am Main

BLACKWELL
Publishers

80
42
15
15

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 The Study of Social Movements: Collective Behaviour, Rational Actions, Protests and New Conflicts	1
1.1 Theoretical and Research Perspectives on Social Movements	3
1.1.1 Collective behaviour as the producer of cultural change	4
1.1.2 Collective mobilization as rational action	7
1.1.3 Protest and political system	9
1.1.4 New movements for new conflicts	11
1.2 What are Social Movements? Towards the Integration of the European and American Traditions	13
1.2.1 Social movements versus political or religious organizations	16
1.2.2 Social movements, protest events, coalitions	19
1.3 The Structure of This Book	21
2 Social Movements and Structural Changes	24
2.1 Social Structure, Political Cleavages and Collective Action	28
2.1.1 Economic change, collective action and movements	29
2.1.2 Political change, collective action and movements	33
2.1.3 Public sphere and private sphere	37
2.2 Structural Transformations, New Conflicts, New Classes	43
2.3 Summary	56

3	The Symbolic Dimension of Collective Action	58
3.1	Culture and Action: The Role of Values	61
3.2	Culture and Action: The Cognitive Perspective	68
3.2.1	Collective action as cognitive praxis	68
3.2.2	Interpretative frames	69
3.2.3	Frame alignment	74
3.2.4	Dominant interpretative frames	77
3.3	Types of Interpretative Frames	78
3.4	Summary	82
4	Collective Action and Identity	83
4.1	Identity and Collective Action	87
4.2	Identity as a Social Process	91
4.2.1	Self- and hetero-definitions of identity	91
4.2.2	Identity as 'rediscovery' or as 'creation'	93
4.2.3	Political opportunities and identity	95
4.2.4	Production of identity and identification rituals	97
4.3	Multiple Identities	99
4.4	Identity, Collective Action and Free Riding	103
4.4.1	Identity and 'rational' action	103
4.4.2	Identity and 'non-rational' action	106
4.5	Summary	109
5	Movement Networks	110
5.1	Social Networks and Individual Participation	112
5.2	Individuals and Organizations	118
5.2.1	Exclusive affiliations	119
5.2.2	Multiple affiliations	119
5.3	Interorganizational Networks	124
5.4	Social Movement Networks as Constraints and as Products of Action	127
5.4.1	Coalitions as the product of instrumental choices	128
5.4.2	Movement networks and conflicts	130
5.4.3	Movement networks and political processes	133
5.5	Summary	135
6	Social Movements and Organizational Form	137
6.1	Do Typical Forms of Social Movement Organization Exist?	140
6.2	Organizational Evolution	147
6.3	Structure and Strategy: Movement Goals and Organizational Form	151

6.3.1	Modernization and organizational form	152
6.3.2	Organizational structure and institutional resources	153
6.3.3	Organizational structure and the presence of allies	155
6.4	The Repertoires of Organizational Form	157
6.5	Functionality and Problems of Social Movement Organizational Form	160
6.6	Summary	163
7	Forms, Repertoires and Cycles of Protest	165
7.1	Protest: A Definition	167
7.2	Repertoires of Action	170
7.3	The Logic and Form of Protest	173
7.3.1	The logic of numbers	174
7.3.2	The logic of material damage	176
7.3.3	The logic of bearing witness	178
7.4	Strategic Options and Protest	181
7.5	Factors Influencing Repertoire Choice	184
7.6	Cycles of Protest	188
7.7	Summary	192
8	The Political Context of Social Movements	193
8.1	Political Institutions and Social Movements	196
8.2	Prevailing Strategies and Social Movements	202
8.3	Repression and Social Movements' Opponents	207
8.4	Social Movements and Potential Allies	213
8.5	The Political Opportunity Structure: Potential and Problems	223
8.6	Summary	224
9	Social Movements: What Consequences?	226
9.1	Social Movement Strategies and Their Effects	228
9.2	Changes in Public Policy	233
9.3	Social Movements and Democracy	237
9.4	The Cross-national Diffusion of Protest	245
9.5	Social Movements and the Distribution of Power	250
9.6	Summary	254
	Notes	255
	References	275
	Index	319