

Table of Contents

Pille Pruulmann-Vengerfeldt, Pille Runnel, Marin Laak, Piret Viires The Challenge of the Digital Turn	7
I User's practices
Pille Pruulmann-Vengerfeldt, Pille Runnel, Agnes Aljas Orienting the Heritage Institution towards Participatory Users in the Internet	13
Marju Lauristin New Media and Changes in the Forms of Cultural Transmission: The Estonian Experience	27
Tobias Olsson, Anders Svensson Reaching and Including Digital Visitors: Swedish Museums and Social Demand	45
Krista Lepik Changing users of Memory Institutions	61
Lien Mostmans, Eva Van Passel Audiovisual Collections in a Digital Culture: Reflections on Providers and Users of Digital Audiovisual Heritage in Flanders	71
Marin Laak Heritage, User and the Digital Environment: Rewriting the Narrative of the Literary Past	85
Katrine Damkjær, Lea Schick Can You Be Friends with an Art Museum? Rethinking the Art Museum with Facebook	105
Stijn Bannier, Chris Vleugels Recommended Friends, Artists, Events and Books: The Opportunities and Risks of Web 3.0	119
Joke Beyl Blogging Writers: (De)Mystification of Authority?	133
Sari Östman Life-Publishing on the Internet – a Playful Field of Life-Narrating	147
Stacey M. Koosel Exploring Digital Identity: Beyond the Private Public Paradox	161
David Casado-Neira From Landscape to Multi-layer Landscape: Landscape as a Tourism Resource on Web 2.0	175
Marcus Weisen Accessible Digital Culture for Disabled People	191
II Cultural transformations
Nico Carpentier A Short History of Participation in the Cultural Realm	207
Anne Kaun Playful Public Connectivity and Heritage Institutions	223

Table of Contents

Piret Viires, Virve Sarapik Solitude in Cyberspace	237
Janne Andresoo, Mihkel Volt Digital Memory, Risks and Common Sense: Dilemmas in the Context of National Libraries	251
Markku Eskelinen Cybertextuality Meets Transtextuality	261
Raine Koskimaa From the Gutenberg Galaxy to the Internet Galaxy. Digital Textuality and the Change of the Cultural Landscape	271
Farouk Y. Seif Between Technology and Teleology: Can the Digital Age Embrace the Analogue Experience of Culture?	285