

Table of Contents

Jacek Kurczewski Bloodlands à la longue durée – Introduction	7
Joanna Kurczewska Anthropology in Service of Reconciliation: The Approach	27
Iwona Jakubowska-Branicka Hate Narrations	43
Aneta Gawkowska Love Speech as Action. John Paul II's Teaching and Practice of Conciliation.....	63
Paweł Śpiewak Reconciliation with the Absent: Poles and Jews in Democratic Poland.....	85
Michał Bilewicz, Anna Stefaniak, Marta Witkowska Polish Youth Confronting the Jewish Past: Antagonistic History and Pathways to Reconciliation.....	97
Henryk Czech Reconciled Diversity – Contribution of the Opole Catholic Church to the Reconciliation of Ethnic Groups, Traditions and Cultures.....	113
Józef Szymeczek Polish Protestants in Trans-Olza Cieszyn Silesia Towards the Polish-German and Czech-German Reconciliation.	133
Aniela Różańska Young People of Cieszyn Silesia in Interfaith Dialogue	149
Aleksandra Herman The Reconciliation Through A Marriage: A Comparative Study of Marital Selection in Two Polish Bi-denominational Communities.....	167
Halina Rusek, Andrzej Kasperek Memory Sites versus Antagonism and Reconciliation: The Case of Polish-Czech Relations.....	195
Vladislav Volkov Latvian-Russian Relations in Daugavpils Since 1991	215

Małgorzata Fuszara
Kresowianie: The Polish Expellees' Perspective on Reconciliation	245
Dariusz Wojakowski
Past, Conflicts and Seeking of Reconciliation on the Polish-Ukrainian Borderland	271
Krzysztof Czyżewski
The Culture of Coexistence in the longue durée . On Practising the Ethos of the Borderland	301
Jacek Kurczewski
Compelled to be Neighbours: A Small Polish Town in Former Germany	313
Jacek Kurczewski
Reconciliation in the Bloodlands – Concluding Remarks	335
Contributors to this volume	349
Acknowledgments	351