
Objects in Motion

GLOBALIZING TECHNOLOGY

Edited by Nina Möllers and Birgit Bauer

artefacts

STUDIES IN THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

volume 10

Managing Editor
Martin Collins, Smithsonian Institution

Series Editors
Robert Bud, Science Museum, London
Bernard Finn, Smithsonian Institution
Helmuth Trischler, Deutsches Museum

Smithsonian Institution
Scholarly Press

Washington, D.C.
2016

ULB Darmstadt
20100028

Contents

Series Preface by Martin Collins v

Introduction vi

Technology Transfers: East–West, North–South

CHAPTER 1 Globalizing Building Technique: The Centennial Hall in Wroclaw by Knut Stegmann 2

CHAPTER 2 Heating the Groves: The Globalization of Agricultural Technology and the Acclimatization of Citrus in the USSR, 1928–1936 by Johanna Conterio 22

CHAPTER 3 Swabian Water Treatment Technology in Russia: A Case Study of International Knowledge and Technology Transfer between West and East in the Late 1960s by Thomas Schuetz 36

CHAPTER 4 Canada, Communism, and the Colombo Plan by David McGee and Rian Manson 46

CHAPTER 5 Inkonvensional Pathways: Soldered Supply Chains from Indonesia's Tin Islands by Matthew Hockenberry 66

Dimensions of Globalization: Objects and Identities

CHAPTER 6 Local Makers, Global Players: Tabla Manufacture and Design in a Global Marketplace by P. Allen Roda 80

CHAPTER 7 Electric Turkish Coffee Makers: Capturing Authenticity for Global Markets by Harun Kaygan 92

CHAPTER 8 Canoes, Identity, and Globalization: The Story of Bill Mason's Camera Case by Bryan Dewalt 112

CHAPTER 9 A Bulldog Travels around the World: Global Perspectives on the Tractor Production of Heinrich Lanz and John Deere in Mannheim, circa 1921–1965 by Oliver Schmidt 130

CHAPTER 10 Technology Heritage Online: A Review of the Digital Museum Inventing Europe by Kimberly Coulter 148

About the Contributors 159

Index 161