

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Part One: Language and Identity: A Theoretical Perspective	1
1. Introduction David Evans	3
2. Meaning: From Inner Structure to Post-structure David Evans	7
3. Discourse Formation David Evans	27
Part Two: Urban Discourses	49
4. 'DFLs' versus 'Locals': Discursive Conflict on Social Media and the Battle for Regional Identity Christopher Anderson	51
5. Youth Identities: Media Discourse in the Formation of Youth Identity Patricia Giardiello	85
Part Three: Marginalized Discourse	103
6. Language-Culture: Marginalization or Opportunity in Cameroon's Official 'State Bilingualism' Henry Kum	105
7. Refugee Communities: The Disappearance of Voice and Impact on Care and Identity Henry Kum	135
8. Subalternity, Language and Projects of Emancipation: An Analysis of Dalit Literature Joseph Mundananikkal Thomas	161
9. Mandarin Chinese in Education and Society in Xinjiang Mamtimyn Sunuodula	183

Part Four: Pedagogical Discourse	217
10. Cultural Discourses in the Foreign Language Classroom: Economic Opportunity, Instrumental Motivation or Cultural Understanding David Evans	219
11. Teacher Development through Classroom Discourse Analysis: The Self-Evaluation of Teacher Talk Instrument Developed by Walsh Karin Zotzmann	243
12. Conclusion: A Pedagogy for Marginalized Language-Culture David Evans	259
Notes on Contributors	278
Index	281