
Table of Contents

Foreword
Oppositional Intellectual Work in the Obama Era.....xi
Marc Lamont Hill
Acknowledgments.....xiii
Introduction
Reading African American Experiences in the Obama Era.....1
Shanesha R. F. Brooks-Tatum & Ebony Elizabeth Thomas

I. Prophetic Words and New Narratives

Chapter 1 The (New?) “Rap on Race”
Historicizing Calls for Racial Dialogue in the Early Years of Barack Obama’s Presidency.....15
Shawn Anthony Christian
Chapter 2 The Next Chapter of Our Story
Rethinking African American Metanarratives in Schooling and Society.....29
Ebony Elizabeth Thomas
Chapter 3 Double Consciousness
The Context and Consequences of Black Racial Identity in the Obama Era.....51
Kafi Damali Kumasi

II. 21st-Century Literacies and African American Youth

Chapter 4 Schools of Hope
Teaching Literacy in the Obama Era.....	71
Jane Bean-Folkes
Chapter 5 Where Do We Go from . . . Where?
Identifying the Ideological Bases of Low-Income, Urban Black Adolescents' Views on Racism.....	89
Alfred W. DeFreece, Jr.
Chapter 6 Transformative Educational Spaces
Black Youth and Education in the 21st Century.....	113
Shaneshia R. F. Brooks-Tatum

III. Pedagogical Approaches to Race, Culture, and Faith in Schools and Communities

Chapter 7 The Obama Effect
Using a Culturally Relevant Pedagogy at a Historically African American University.....	135
Karen Keaton Jackson
Chapter 8 The Evidence of Things Not Seen
Faith and Persuasion in the Obama Era.....	151
Zandra L. Jordan

IV. Artistic and Political Narratives of Black American Cultures

Chapter 9 Hip-Hop's President
The Genre, His Genius, Our Generation.....	173
Jamal R. Burke
Chapter 10 "As If the Walls Could Speak"
Imagining Postmemories of U.S. Slavery in the Age of Obama.....	187
Kya Mangrum

V. Call and Response
Critical Cross-Generational Dialogues

Chapter 11 African Americans and the U.S.
Prison-Industrial Complex.....207
Gregory L. Caldwell
Keisha L. Green

Chapter 12 Taking the Pulse of Our Communities
The State of Black Public Health in the Obama Era.....227
Nutrena Watts Tate
Jonnie Perryman Hamilton

Chapter 13 Black Love as Activism
Restoring Our Families and Communities.....241
Gloria B. Mills
Marcelle M. Haddix

Afterword
Black Scholarship in the Interest of Black Folks.....261
Zeus Leonardo

Contributors.....267

Index.....273