

Contents

List of contributors	vii
List of abbreviations	xi
Preface	xii

PART I HISTORY AND CULTURE

1	Law and development: the Korean experience Dai-kwon Choi	3
2	The rule of law and forms of power: theorizing the social foundations of the rule of law in South Korea and East Asia Chulwoo Lee	20
3	Colonialism and patriarchy: where the Korean family-head (hoju) system had been located Hyunah Yang	45

PART II THEORY AND METHODOLOGICAL QUESTIONS

4	Korean perception(s) of pyungdeung (equality) Ilhyung Lee	67
5	The normative phenomenon of public sector in Korean society Jeong-Oh Kim	93
6	The legal development in Korea: juridification and proceduralization Sangdon Yi and Sung Soo Hong	108

PART III CRITICAL ISSUES IN LAW AND SOCIETY IN KOREA

7	The making of public interest law in South Korea via the institutional discourses of Minbyeon , PSPD and Gonggam Patricia Goedde	131
8	Recent reforms in the legal profession and legal education Dohyun Kim	150
9	The constitutionalisation of the representative system in Korea Kuk-Woon Lee	172

10	Transitional justice in Korea: legally coping with past wrongs after democratisation Kuk Cho	189
	Index	225