

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations and Acronyms	ix
Glossary	x
Introduction	xiii

PART ONE THE CHIN BACKGROUND

1. Chin Ethnicity 1
2. Traditional Chin Ways of Life: Phunglam 21
3. Rituals as Confirmation of Power and Social Status 46

PART TWO COLONIAL POWER, CHRISTIAN MISSION AND THE CHIN RESPONSE

4. The British Annexation of Chinram 85
5. The Coming of Christianity to East Chinram 106
6. The Chin Response to the Christian Mission 129
7. The Church after the Anglo–Chin War 154

PART THREE THE CHIN IN A NEW CONTEXT OF INDEPENDENT BURMA

8. The Burma Act of 1935 and World War II 179
9. The Joining of the Union of Burma 201
10. Christianity and Chin Identity 225
11. Concluding Remarks 242

Appendix I: Pioneers in Ethnic Studies 247

Appendix II: Previous Literature in Chin Studies 254

References 263

Index 275

MAPS

1. Chinram xxiv
2. The Union of Burma 200
3. Chin State (East Chinram) 202