

Changing Worlds and the Ageing Subject

Dimensions in the Study of Ageing and Later Life

Edited by

BRITT-MARIE ÖBERG
ANNA-LIISA NÄRVÄNEN
ELISABET NÄSMAN
ERIK OLSSON

Linköping University, Sweden

ASHGATE

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Foreword	x
Acknowledgements	xxi
1 Some Implications of Population Ageing for Societies and Individuals Sarah Harper	 1
2 Analysing Age Discrimination John Macnicol	 23
3 The Constructs of Generation and Cohort in Sociological Studies of Ageing: Theoretical Conceptualizations and Some Empirical Implications Gunhild Hammarström	 41
4 Age, Ageing and the Life Course Anna-Liisa Närvänen	 65
5 Old Women's Ailments in the Light of History Birgitta Odén	 81
6 Researching Home Help Services for the Elderly in Japan and Sweden: How Cultural Concepts Affect the Research Design Els-Marie Anbäcken	 96
7 The Sense of Self in Alzheimer's Disease: The Person's Perspective Phyllis Braudy Harris	 115
8 The Social Construction of Older Women's Identities and Institutional Intervention Isabella Paoletti	 133
9 Old People, New and Old Artefacts – Technology for Later Life Jan-Erik Hagberg	 161

vi	Changing Worlds and the Ageing Subject
10	Biographical and Strategic Issues in Research about Ageing Kees Knipscheer	185
Index		200