

Contents

Preface	vii
Contributors	ix
Abbreviations	x
Introduction: New Histories of the Court Steven Gunn and Antheun Janse	1
1 Ritual, Ceremony and the 'Civilising Process': The Role of the Court, c.1270–1400 Malcolm Vale	13
2 Corruption at Court? Crisis and the Theme of luxuria in England and France, c.1340–1422 C. D. Fletcher	28
3 Tourneyers and Spectators: The Shrovetide Tournament at The Hague, 1391 Antheun Janse	39
4 Patterns in Patronage: Distinction and Imitation in the Patronage of Painted Art by Burgundian Courtiers in the Fifteenth and Early Sixteenth Centuries Hanno Wijsman	53
5 The Nerve Centre of Political Networks? The Burgundian Court and the Integration of Holland and Zeeland into the Burgundian State, 1425–1477 Mario Damen	70
6 Appointment Strategies at the Court of Duke Philip the Good: New Applications of Old Mechanisms Hanno Brand	85
7 For Mutual Benefit? Court and City in the Burgundian Low Countries Peter Stabel	101

8	Memoirs and the Self-Consciousness of the Court: the Birth of a Genre D. A. L. Morgan	118
9	The Court of Henry VII Steven Gunn	132
10	The Court, War and Noble Power in England, c.1475–1558 David Grummitt	145
11	The Burgundian-Habsburg Court as a Military Institution from Charles the Bold to Philip II Hans Cools	156
12	Cultural Life and the Exercise of Power at the Residences of Henry Fitzalan, Earl of Arundel, 1512–1580 Andrew Boyle	169
13	Court Life in Early Modern Vienna and Versailles: Discourse versus Practice Jeroen Duindam	183
	Index	197