

Contents

Introduction: Why use this course companion to social psychology?	1
Part One The Basics of Social Psychology	5
1.1 Definition	6
1.2 Social psychology and related disciplines/theories	7
1.3 History of social psychology	8
1.4 Cultural differences in psychology	11
1.5 Founding figures and their core ideas	11
1.6 Thinking like a social psychologist	14
1.7 Learning outcomes and assessment	17
1.8 Running themes	19
Part Two Course Companion to the Curriculum	23
2.1 The self	24
2.2 Social cognition	31
2.3 Attribution	40
2.4 Attitudes and attitude change	48
2.5 Social influence	59
2.6 Group processes	66
2.7 Intergroup relations, prejudice and discrimination	75
2.8 Close relationships	85
2.9 Aggression	95
2.10 Prosocial behaviour	105
Part Three Study and Revision Skills	117
3.1 Introduction	118
3.2 How to get the most out of your lectures	119
3.3 How to make the most of seminars	124
3.4 Essay writing tips	129
3.5 Revision hints and tips	138
3.6 Exam tips	149

3.7	Tips on interpreting essay and exam questions	159
3.8	Summary	169
	Glossary	171
	References	193