

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Notes on the Contributors	viii
1 Emotions in the Household Susan Broomhall	1
2 Bonds of Affection between Children and Their Foster-Parents in Early Icelandic Society Anna Hansen	38
3 Love Thy Chambermaid: Emotional and Physical Violence against the Servant in Les Cent Nouvelles nouvelles Tovi Bibring	53
4 Humanist Educational and Emotional Expectations of Teenagers in Late Fifteenth-Century Italy Ruth Chavasse	69
5 Humour and Household Relationships: Servants in Late Medieval and Sixteenth-Century French Farce Sarah Gordon	85
6 Fostering Girls in Early Modern France Tracy Adams	103
7 'Whether your Ladiship will or ne': Displeasure, Duty and Devotion in The Lisle Letters Catherine Mann	119
8 'Good Friendship' in the Household: Illicit Sexuality, Emotions and Women's Relationships in Late Sixteenth-Century England Stephanie Tarbin	135
9 Resentment and Rebellion in the Scholarly Household: Son and Amanuensis in the Godefroy Family Caroline R. Sherman	153

10	Suspicion, Rivalry and Care: Mistresses and Maidservants in Early Modern Stockholm Marko Lamberg	170
11	'A share of sorrows': Death in the Early Modern English Household Andrea Brady	185
12	Servants' Social Networks and Relationships in Eighteenth-Century Turku and Odense Kirsi Ojala	203
13	'Creating a Life Together': Utopian Households in the Work of Sarah Scott and Sarah Fielding Nicole Pohl	219
14	'I was born in this palace': Emotional Bonds in the Artistic Community of the Louvre (1750–1800) Emmanuelle Philippe and Séverine Sofio	234
15	The Social World of a Dutch Boy: The Diary of Otto van Eck (1791–1796) Arianne Baggerman and Rudolf Dekker	252
16	Fictive Kinship: Wards and Foster-Parents in Nineteenth-Century France Ivan Jablonka	269
	Index	285