

Contents

List of Tables and Figure	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 Coming to Terms with Change	1
The world on the move	2
Learning the lessons of the past	5
Multiculturalism and difference	11
The causes of racism	17
The impact of immigration	20
Citizenship in a multicultural society	25
The practice of community cohesion	27
2 The Journey to Community Cohesion	30
Aliens and foreigners	31
The emergence of race relations policies	34
Early integration measures	38
The development of equalities programmes	43
Social cohesion and community cohesion	50
Formalising community cohesion	62
3 Changing Conceptions of Multiculturalism	68
Characteristics of multiculturalism	68
Separateness and segregation	73
The degree of 'difference'	84
The role of the state	95
4 Prejudice, Discrimination and the 'Fear of Difference'	101
National and international order	101
The science of racism	105
Social psychological models	113
Sociological models	118
The 'fear of difference'	122

5	Identity, Values and Citizenship	127
	Identity and nationality	133
	National identity	140
	Multiculturalism and identity	148
	Values, identity and nationality	156
	Community cohesion and shared values	159
	The citizenship agenda	162
6	Developing a Programme for Community Cohesion	171
	Constructing a programme	172
	Measures to promote equality and prevent discrimination	174
	A common vision and sense of belonging	178
	Valuing diversity	186
	Cross-cultural contact	188
	Social capital and civil society	198
	The emerging practice of cross-cultural contact	203
	Key public services and policy areas	212
	The role of leaders	229
	Monitoring and review	230
	Conflict prevention, resolution and reconciliation	233
	Bibliography	239
	Index	253

List of Tables and Figure

Tables

3.1	Minority ethnic population of the United Kingdom, 2001	70
3.2	The layers of separation	79
3.3	The domains of difference	88
5.1	Components of identity and values	132
5.2	Naturalisation requirements and provisions in selected countries, November 2001	163
6.1	Forms of cross-cultural contact and engagement	191

Figure

2.1	Definition of community cohesion	62
-----	----------------------------------	----