
Contents

List of Tables	vii
List of Figures	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction to the First Edition	1
Introduction to the Second Edition	4
1 Introduction to Textual Analysis	6
1.1 'Seeing is believing'	6
1.2 Interpreting the world around us	6
1.3 Non-verbal communication (NVC)	9
1.4 Textual analysis	12
1.5 Form	13
1.6 Mise en scène	18
1.7 Making meaning	20
1.8 Medium and the message	25
1.9 Context and meaning	30
1.10 Codes and conventions	32
1.11 Analysing still texts	46
1.12 Images in sequence	51
1.13 Sound	60
2 Semiotics	63
2.1 Introduction to semiotics	63
2.2 Saussure	63
2.3 C. S. Peirce	73
2.4 Barthes	74
2.5 Binary oppositions	77
2.6 Semiotic analysis: Nokia 232	79
3 Advanced Textual Analysis	83
3.1 Introduction	83
3.2 High culture versus low culture	84

3.3	Audience readings	87
3.4	Intertextuality	95
3.5	New media technologies	97
3.6	Ideology	100
3.7	Hegemony	111
3.8	Discourse	114
3.9	Alternative texts	125
3.10	A history of Western images	137
4	Representation	146
4.1	Introduction	146
4.2	Dyer's typography	146
4.3	Re-presentation	147
4.4	Types and stereotypes	147
4.5	Who does the re-presenting?	160
4.6	Audience and representation	161
4.7	Genre and representation: the Western	165
4.8	Propaganda and public relations	173
5	Representing Gender	190
5.1	Introduction	190
5.2	Representations of gender	190
5.3	Ways of seeing gender	193
5.4	Gender, masquerade and the queering of the gaze	198
5.5	Gender in magazines: More and Nuts	206
5.6	Female action heroes	214
5.7	Cindy Sherman: who are women?	225
6	Representation and Reality	228
6.1	Introduction	228
6.2	Defining realism	229
6.3	Realism and film	238
6.4	Formal realism in documentaries	242
6.5	Representing the world in the news	256
6.6	Representing the war in Iraq	268
6.7	Other representations	271
	Conclusion	276
	Bibliography	278
	Index	289

List of Tables

1.1	Examples of codes and their conventional meanings	21
3.1	Tim O'Reilly's Webs 1.0 and 2.0 comparison	98
3.2	Bourgeois ideology and its opposite	102
3.3	Wollen's counter cinema	130
5.1	Gender oppositions	191
6.1	A summary of Nichols's documentary modes	252

List of Figures

1.1	Facing a group of six men	7
1.2	Academy ratio (1:1.37)	14
1.3	CinemaScope (up to 1:2.66)	14
1.4	High- and low-angle shots	15
1.5	Level canted left and right	15
1.6	Long shot and close-up	16
1.7	Rita Hayworth in Gilda	22
1.8	Housewife and child	23
1.9	Palgrave's home page	29
1.10	Poll tax riots in London	34
1.11	A building in the Sussex Downs	39
1.12	'An unforgettable little black number'	47
1.13	Continuity editing	55
2.1	Signifier–signified creates the sign	64
2.2	The vertical structure of the sign	64
2.3	Denotation and connotation	66
2.4	Parole and langue	68
2.5	Synchronic and diachronic dimensions	69
2.6	The sentence as diachronic	69
2.7	Barthes's myths	75
3.1	Funerary papyrus of the Princess Entiu-ny (1025 BC)	138
4.1	Students represent themselves	150
4.2	Cover of Loaded magazine	159
4.3	Marlon Brando as 'the wild one'	164
5.1	More! front cover 2008	207
5.2	More! front cover 1995	209
5.3	Still from Blue Steel	217
5.4	Still from Thelma and Louise	218
5.5	Cindy Sherman: 'Untitled Film Still No. 21, 1978'	225