

CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES	ix
KEY IDEAS BOXES	xi
CASE STUDY BOXES	xiii
MOBILE METHOD BOXES	xv
PREFACE	xvii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	xix
1 Introduction	1
Introduction	1
Mobility everywhere	5
The approach	12
Mobile relationality	17
Conclusion	31
2 Meanings	33
Introduction	33
Meaningful mobilities	34
Figures and metaphors of mobility	39
Conclusion	81

3	Politics	83
	Introduction	83
	The politics of mobility	85
	Entanglements of mobility	105
	Mobile politics	117
	Conclusion	131
4	Practices	133
	Introduction	133
	Doing mobility	134
	Practice, performance and more-than-representational mobilities	137
	Seeing, sensing, moving: examples of mobile practice	150
	Motion and emotion: affect and the feeling of mobility	162
	Conclusion	173
5	Mediations	175
	Introduction	175
	Mediated mobile societies: auto- and aeromobilities	177
	Diffusion	187
	Mediating between	196
	Augmentation	209
	Conclusion	223
6	Conclusion	225
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	228
	INDEX	254

FIGURES

2.1	Abstracted mobility	36
2.2	Mobility in context	37
2.3	Time–space path visualization	52
2.4	A schematic of Tuan’s theory of place	54
2.5	Filipino translocal subjects	79
3.1	The ‘tunnel effects’ of ‘hub and spoke’ infrastructural networks and elite helicopter travel in São Paulo	98
3.2	Space–time prisms	100
3.3	Motility and mobility	102
3.4	Inclusive mobility design	112
3.5	The forced displacement of Rwandan refugees	121
3.6	Parkour bodies	126
5.1	Doing office work on the motorway	181
5.2	European business connectivities	181
5.3	Oystercard ‘pay-as-you-go’ travel in London	216

KEY IDEAS BOXES

1.1	Mobility and moorings	21
2.1	The production of mobilities	35
2.2	Movement, paths and space–time routines	50
2.3	Nomad science	59
2.4	Botanizing on the asphalt, Walter Benjamin, flânerie and the arcades	64
3.1	The politics of mobility and power geometries	91
3.2	Motility and mobilities as capital	99
3.3	Flexible citizenship	106
4.1	Phenomenology and the mobile ‘body subject’	138
4.2	Mobility and the habitus	140
4.3	The tourist gaze	153
4.4	The arabesque of sociality	169
5.1	Transport geographies	178
5.2	Landscapes of global cultural economies	188
5.3	Angels and parasites	197
5.4	The politics of comfort	205
5.5	Technological mobilities, networked infrastructures and information communication technology	210
5.6	The network society	212
5.7	Mobilities and surveillance studies	217

CASE STUDY BOXES

2.1 Spatial science and the Cold War	48
2.2 Citizenship and sedentarism in Southern Africa	55
2.3 Strategic points and flexible lines – the geometry of the Israeli–Palestinian conflict	61
2.4 Intensities of staying at Henry Parkes Motel	77
2.5 Putting place on the line, Filipino translocalities in Hong Kong	80
3.1 The evacuation of New Orleans	86
3.2 The stratification of helicopter travel in São Paulo	96
3.3 Waiting for the bus	111
3.4 Dams and displacements	116
3.5 Bulldozers, bombs and bridges	121
3.6 Packs, swarms and styles of protest in Khatmandhu	123
3.7 Parkour, utopia and the performance of resistance	126
3.8 Mobilizing the strike	130
4.1 Representing and regulating mobility in modernity	147
4.2 Ascending Glastonbury Tor	158
4.3 Moving together in time	167
4.4 The affective movements of clubbing	171
5.1 Spaces of Indian motoring	185
5.2 Skateboarding and mediation	201
5.3 Waiting for the lift	208

MOBILE METHOD BOXES

1.1 Rhythm and cultural analysis	30
2.1 Excavating and reconstructing mobilities	43
2.2 Follow the thing	53
2.3 Flânerie as mobile ethnography	66
2.4 Mobile ethnography and multi-sited research	70
2.5 Emplacing migrant subjects	78
3.1 The primacy of position	93
3.2 Multi-methods and the slow food movement	128
4.1 The representation of research	145
4.2 Time–space collage	156
4.3 Talking while walking-with	161
5.1 Televisual mobilities and the mobile gaze	193
5.2 Tracing mobilities	219