

Contents

AFRICAN AMERICAN SACRED FOLK MUSIC: 1755-1945	5
Early Sacred Singing	6
The Azusa Street Revival and the Birth of Pentecostalism	12
Pentecostal Ministers and Singers	18
Pentecostal Music Outside the Pentecostal Church	26
The Emergence of the Jubilee Quartet:
The Jefferson County School	29
The Jubilee Quartet Movement Spreads	34
Church Singing Accompanied by Piano, Guitar, and
Other Instruments	36
Gospel Pearls	41
Gospel Music on the Eve of the Golden Age	46
 MOVE ON UP A LITTLE HIGHER: 1945-55	 49
The Legacy of World War II: Radio and Recordings	51
Gospel on the Highways and Byways	54
Gospel in Chicago	57
Gospel in Philadelphia	103
Gospel in Detroit	123
Gospel in St. Louis	134
Gospel in Tennessee	138
Gospel in New York	152
Gospel Spreads across the Nation	169
The Gospel Choir	181
The Gospel Band	184

AND THE WALLS CAME TUMBLING DOWN: 1955-65	187
Gospel and the Traditions of African American Folk Music	193
The New and Newly Revised Gospel Quartets	195
The California School of Gospel	205
Piano-Accompanied Groups	212
Other Singers	240
Family Groups	241
The Second Gospel Triumvirate	247
Gospel on Broadway	250
Gospel Abroad	253
Deserters and Joiners	254
 CONCLUSION: I LOOKED DOWN THE LINE AND I WONDERED: 1965 AND BEYOND	 257
 Bibliography	 260
Index	264