

Contributors	ix
--------------	----

1. When Culture Impacts Health	1
Jane Dixon, Cathy Banwell, and Stanley Ulijaszek

Part A
Research Approaches	13

2. Antecedents of Culture-in-Health Research	15
Dorothy Broom, Cathy Banwell, and Don Gardner

3. Biological and Biocultural Anthropology	23
Stanley Ulijaszek

4. Toward Cultural Epidemiology: Beyond Epistemological Hegemony	33
Mark Brough

5. The Cultural Anthropological Contribution to Communicable Disease Epidemiology	43
Stephen P. Luby

Part B
Local Tales	53

Section 1
Industrial and Post-Industrial Societies	55

6. Medicalization or Medicine as Culture? The Case of Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder	57
Helen Keane

7. Filthy Fingernails and Friendly Germs: Lay Concepts of Contagious Disease Transmission in Developed Countries 67
Kate Crosbie, Juliet Richters, Claire Hooker, and Julie Leask
8. Context and Environment: The Value of Considering Lay Epidemiology 85
Anna Olsen and Cathy Banwell
9. Identity, Social Position, Well-Being, and Health: Insights from Australians Living with Hearing Loss 95
Anthony Hogan, Katherine J. Reynolds, and Don Byrne
10. Framing Debates about Risk for Skin Cancer and Vitamin D Deficiency in New Zealand: Ethnicity, Skin Color, and/or Cultural Practice? 105
Paul Callister and Judith Galtry
11. Analyzing Smoking Using Te Whare Tapa Wha 115
Marewa Glover
12. Thirty Years of New Zealand Smoking Advances a Case for Cultural Epidemiology and Cultural Geography 129
John D. Glover, Jane Dixon, Cathy Banwell, Sarah Tennant, and Matthew Freeman
13. On Slimming Pills, Growth Hormones, and Plastic Surgery: The Socioeconomic Value of the Body in South Korea 141
Daniel Schwekendiek, Minhee Yeo, and Stanley Ulijaszek

Section 2

Economically Transitioning Societies 155

14. Tacking between Disciplines: Approaches to Tuberculosis in New Zealand, Cook Islands, and Tuvalu 157
Julie Park and Judith Littleton
15. Cultural Epidemiology: The Example of Pari Village, Papua 167
Ian Maddocks

16. Life and Well-Being under Historical Ecological Variation: The Epidemiology of Disease and of Representations 181
Robert Attenborough and Don Gardner
17. Perceptions of Leprosy in the Orang Asli (Indigenous Minority) of Peninsular Malaysia 193
Juliet Bedford
18. A Qualitative Exploration of Factors Affecting Uptake of Water Treatment Technology in Rural Bangladesh 205
Shaila Arman, Leanne Unicomb, and Stephen P. Luby
19. Anthropological Approaches to Outbreak Investigations in Bangladesh 215
Shahana Parveen, Rebeca Sultana, Stephen P. Luby, and Emily S. Gurley
20. Post-Disaster Coping in Aceh: Sociocultural Factors and Emotional Response 225
Rebecca Fanany and Ismet Fanany

Part C

Methodological Lessons 237

21. The Positioning of Indigenous Australians as Health Care Recipients 239
Jill Guthrie and Maggie Walter
22. Capturing the Capitals: A Heuristic for Measuring the "Wealth" of New Zealand Children in the Twenty-First Century: An Application to the Growing Up in New Zealand Longitudinal Cohort 251
Vivienne Ivory, Susan Morton, Johanna Schmidt, Te Kani Kingi, and Polly Atatoa-Carr
23. Cultural Consensus Modeling of Disease 269
Stanley Ulijaszek
24. Reconsidering Meaning and Measurement: An Ethno-Epidemiology Study of Refugee Youth Settlement in Melbourne, Australia 279
Sandra M. Gifford

25. The Cultural Economy Approach to Studying Chronic Disease Risks, with Application to Illicit Drug Use	297
Jane Dixon and Cathy Banwell
26. Doing Health Policy Research: How to Interview Policy Elites	309
Phillip Baker
27. Thai Food Culture in Transition: A Mixed Methods Study on the Role of Food Retailing	319
Matthew Kelly, Cathy Banwell, Jane Dixon, Sam-ang Seubsman, and Adrian Sleight
28. Developing Culturally Appropriate Interventions to Prevent Person-to-Person Transmission of Nipah Virus in Bangladesh: Cultural Epidemiology in Action	329
M. Saiful Islam, Stephen P. Luby, and Emily S. Gurley

Conclusion

29. From Local Tales to Global Lessons	341
Jane Dixon, Cathy Banwell, and Stanley Ulijaszek
30. Complementary Readings	357
 Index	 361