

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1

Carolyn Cunningham

Part 1: Impression Management Strategies

1. Comparing Impression Management Strategies across Social Media Platforms	15
Jeffrey H. Kuznekoff
2. "Looking the Part" and "Staying True": Balancing Impression Management on Facebook	35
Judith E. Rosenbaum, Benjamin K. Johnson, Peter A. Stepman, and Koos C. M. Nuijten
3. Face-Off: Different Ways Identity is Privileged through Facebook	61
Daniel C. Davis, Margaeux B. Lippman, Timothy W. Morris, and Jessica A. Tougas

Part 2: Identity in Professional Contexts

4. Compressed Crystals: A Metaphor for Mediated Identity Expression	85
Bree McEwan and Jennifer J. Mease

5. Branding as Social Discourse: Identity Construction Using Online Social and Professional Networking Sites 107
Corey Jay Liberman
6. Like Us on Facebook and Follow Us on Twitter: Corporate Identity Management across Social Media Platforms 129
Binod Sundararajan and Malavika Sundararajan

Part 3: Managing Intersectionality

7. Virtual Closets: Strategic Identity Construction and Social Media 149
Bruce E. Drushel
8. The Performative and Performance Possibilities of Social Media: Antoine Dodson and The Bed Intruder 165
Amber Johnson
9. Developing a Transgender Identity in a Virtual Community 185
Sara Green-Hamann and John C. Sherblom

Part 4: The Light and Dark Side of Impression Management

10. Face Threatening Messages and Attraction in Social Networking Sites: Reconciling Strategic Self-Presentation with Negative Online Perceptions 205
Nicholas Brody and Jorge Peña
11. Psychological Benefits and Costs: A Self-Affirmation Framework for Understanding the Effects of Facebook Self-Presentation 227
Catalina L. Toma

12. What You Can Really Know about Someone from Their Facebook Profile (And Where You Should Look to Find Out)	247
Jeffrey A. Hall and Natalie Pennington
 Bibliography	 271
Index	307
About the Contributors	321