

CONTENTS

Contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xv
Conventions	xvi
List of Figures and Tables	xvii

Introductions	1
----------------------	----------

1 Introduction: rethinking gender and political culture in early modern Europe	3
James Daybell and Svante Norrhem
2 Gender, politics and archives in early modern England	25
James Daybell

PART I
Diplomacy, gifts and the politics of exchange	47

3 The gendered power of porcelain among early modern European dynasties	49
Susan Broomhall and Jacqueline Van Gent
4 Diplomats and kin networks: diplomatic strategy and gender in Sweden, 1648–1740	68
Peter Lindström and Svante Norrhem

PART II

Socio-economic structures, gender and politics 87

- 5 The opportunity to profit from favourable circumstances:
a widow's benefits of holding crown fiefs in Norway in the 1520s 89
Randi Bjørshol Wærdahl
- 6 Regional and family networks: the hidden role of sisters and sisters-in-law 107
Barbara Harris
- 7 Widows' political strategies in traditional communities:
negotiating marital status and authority in eighteenth-century France 123
Elise Dermineur

PART III

Women and gendered politics at court 141

- 8 'For ye, young men, show a womanish soul, yon maiden
a man's': perspectives on female monarchy in Elizabeth's first decade 143
Victoria Smith
- 9 Strategies for survival: women at the court of the Medici
(1565–1578) 158
Sarah Bercusson

PART IV

Voting and political representation 177

- 10 Gender, place and power: controverted elections in late
Georgian England 179
Elaine Chalus
- 11 Gender, politics and voting in early modern Scandinavia 197
Peter Lindström, Hilde Sandvik, and Åsa Karlsson Sjögren

CONCLUSION
Global perspectives	215
12 Gender and cultural power in global perspective	217
Merry Wiesner-Hanks
Index	237