

Table of Contents

Abstract	i
Acknowledgements	viii
Notes on Fieldwork, Thai Terms and Citations	x
Chapter One: "Introduction"	1
1.1 The Anthropology of Values.....	3
1.2 Defining Diaspora.....	6
1.3 Conceptualizing Diaspora in the Religious Field.....	8
1.4 The Two Concepts of Doctrinal Values vs. Non-Doctrinal Values in Thai Buddhism.....	8
1.4.1 Thai Buddhist Values: Doctrinal.....	11
1.4.2 Thai Buddhist Values: Non-Doctrinal.....	15
1.5 Marriage Migration to Germany.....	19
1.6 Types of Buddhism in Western Settings.....	23
1.7 Thai Buddhist Communities in Germany.....	24
1.8 Thai Buddhist Communities and Networks in Western Settings.....	26
1.9 Fieldwork.....	28
1.10 List of the Main Fieldsites.....	35
1.11 Structure of the Dissertation.....	40
 Part I: People and Religion
Chapter Two: "Women and Thai Temples"	44
2.1 Introduction.....	44
2.2 Transmigrants and Thai Temples in the Diaspora Context	46
2.3 Food Offering and Thai Buddhist Women.....	47
2.3.1 Women and Organizational Structures.....	49
2.3.2 The Significance of Food as Ritual.....	51
2.3.3 Ritual Meals: the Process of Food Offering.....	53
2.3.4 Friendship, Food Making and Food Sharing.....	58
2.4 Dish Washing and Temple Cleaning.....	59
2.5 Chii Phraam and the Eight Precepts.....	61
2.6 The Significance of Buddha Statues.....	62
2.7 Thai Buddhist Funerals.....	63
2.8 Description of Other Laity Who Visit Thai Temples.....	66

2.8.1 Non-Thai Husbands.....	66
2.8.2 Second-Generation and 1.5 Generation Children.....	69
2.8.3 Southeast Asian Ethnicities.....	75
2.9 Conclusion.....	76
Chapter Three: “Thai Missionary Monks”	79
3.1.1 Introduction.....	79
3.1.1 Historical Background of Thai Missionary Monks.....	81
3.1.2 Phra Thammathut Training Program.....	82
3.1.3 Monks’ Conferences: A Social Platform.....	85
3.2 Phra Thammathut : Religious Duties and Challenges at Thai Monasteries.....	89
3.2.1 Embarking on Their Journey to Germany.....	89
3.2.2 Setting Up an Official Wat Thai.....	91
3.2.3 Offering Morning Food Alms.....	93
3.2.4 Characteristic Differences: Thammayut vs Mahanikai Sect.....	94
3.3 Phra Thammathut : Religious Duties and Challenges beyond Thai Monasteries.....	99
3.3.1 Dining Out in Thai Restaurants and Local German Restaurants.....	100
3.3.2 Visiting Tourist Attractions.....	103
3.3.3 Conducting a Ritual at a “Morally Disapproved Business”	106
3.4 Conclusion.....	108
Chapter Four: “Mae Chii in Germany”	111
4.1 Introduction.....	111
4.2 History and Background of Thai Nuns.....	113
4.3 The Nun Community in Germany.....	115
4.4 Mae Chii Duen : Feeding the Monks and Selling the Food.....	117
4.5 Mae Chii Dao : Dekwat and Personal Mentor.....	120
4.6 Mother and Daughter Reincarnated.....	124
4.7 Mae Chii Nee : The Path to Liberation.....	126
4.8 Meditation in Motion.....	128
4.9 Conclusion.....	130
Part 2: Religion in Action
Chapter Five: “Temple Festivals”	132
5.1 Introduction.....	132
5.1.1 Merit in the Thai Buddhist Economy.....	136
5.1.2 Diasporic Networks through Social Media and Online Platforms.....	137

5.2 Background on Songkran Festival (Thai New Year) in Thailand.....	138
5.2.1 Songkran Festival at Wat Sanghavihara, Stuttgart.....	138
5.2.2 Songkran Festival at Wat Buddhadham, Freising.....	141
5.3 Background on Salakaphat in Thailand.....	147
5.4 Salakaphat at Wat Sanghavihara.....	148
5.5 Kathin Ceremony in Germany.....	151
5.6 Ideology Conflict: Merit-Making and Tax-Deductible Donations.....	156
5.7 Conclusion.....	157
Chapter Six: "Non-Doctrinal Buddhism"	163
6.1 Introduction.....	163
6.2 Kuman Thong	166
6.2.1 Kuman Thong at Wat Freising.....	168
6.2.2 Kuman Thong in Private Households.....	175
6.3 Chao Thee	179
6.3.1 The Spirit Houses.....	180
6.3.2 Nang Kwak	184
6.3.3 Territorial Spirits at Other Thai Temples in Germany.....	186
6.4 Buang Suang Thep	189
6.5 Spirit Mediums.....	195
6.6 Magic Monks.....	199
6.7 Black Magic.....	203
6.8 Conclusion.....	207
Part 3: Meditation
Chapter Seven: "Pathway to Becoming a Meditator"	210
7.1 Introduction.....	210
7.2 Thai Buddhist Cultural and Fun Experience.....	215
7.3 Realizing Suffering.....	220
7.4 Long-Term Vipassana Meditators.....	224
7.5 Conclusion.....	227
Chapter Eight: "Building a Meditation Community"	228
8.1 Introduction.....	228
8.2. The Setting of Wat Buddhavipassana.....	229
8.2.1 Arrival, Regulations and Opening Ceremonies.....	230
8.2.2 Daily Schedule.....	234

8.2.3 Recruiting Process, Frequency of Participation and Length of Stay.....	236
8.2.4 Pedagogy Experience.....	238
8.2.5 Relationship between Meditators and Meditation Teachers.....	240
8.2.6 Yogi and Social Food.....	241
8.3 The Setting of Wat Buddhadhama.....	243
8.3.1 Registration and Recruiting process.....	245
8.3.2 Schedule and Difficulties in Community Living.....	245
8.3.3 Pedagogical Techniques for Vipassana Meditation Group Retreat.....	248
8.3.4 Dhamma Talks.....	250
8.3.5 Food Preparation and Donation.....	252
8.3.6 Dish Washing Room.....	253
Chapter Nine: "Conclusion"	258
9.1 Merit, Nipphan and the Law of Karma.....	259
9.2 Merit and Important Actors.....	261
9.3 The Malleability of the Rules.....	264
Glossary.....	266
Bibliography.....	273
Declaration in accordance to § 8(1) c) and (d) of the doctoral degree regulation of the Faculty	287