

Introduction

Irina Bokova in Conversation with Roland Bernecker and Ronald Grätz

Education and Civil Society Commitment

Farida Shaheed: Cultural Rights: a Key for Promoting Global Citizenship

Werner Wintersteiner and Christoph Wulf: Global Citizenship – Convivial Cosmopolitanism

Lars Eckstein and Dirk Wiemann: Minor Cosmopolitanisms

Ahmed Khan: Forced Migration and Global Citizenship – On My Personal Transformation from Refugee to Immigrant

Volker Westerbarkey: Médecins Sans Frontières. Humanity –
Also (Especially) in Warzones

Selmin Çalışkan: Working for Human Rights in a Global Age

Culture and the Arts and Sciences

Odila Triebel: Global Citizenship – A Complement to or the Measure of International Cultural Relations?

Gregory Crane: Classical Languages, Philology and Global Citizenship

Hermann Parzinger: The Humboldt Forum in the Berlin Palace – a Venue for Cosmopolitan Education

Anna Veigel and Peter Martin: kulturweit – Education for the World Society

Mark Mast: Music as a Way towards a World Community

Ingo Günther: World Citizen 3.0

Reinhold Ewald: For a “United Space for Europe”

Politics, the Environment, Ethics

Dirk Messner: Global Cooperation or Global Disorder?
The Struggle between Cosmopolitans and Nationalists in the Twenty-First Century

Chandran Nair: Global Citizenship Begins with the Local

William E. Scheuerman: Morality and the Modern Nation-State

Karl-Josef Kuschel: “A Global Conscience” – World Religions and World Ethics in the Age of Globalisation

Biographies