

MORTALITY

VOLUME 17 NUMBER 2 MAY 2012

Special Issue: Music and death

INTRODUCTION SIMON MILLS	89
ARTICLES
Resounding the great divide: theorising music in everyday life at the end of life TIA DENORA	92
Creative songwriting in therapy at the end of life and in bereavement BOB HEATH and JANE LINGS	106
‘Requiem sempiternam’? Death and the musical requiem in the twentieth century WOLFGANG MARX	119
Identifying key changes: the progress of cremation and its influence on music at funerals in England, 1874–2010 BRIAN PARSONS	130
Sounds to soothe the soul: music and bereavement in a traditional South Korean death ritual SIMON MILLS	145
Cooling the road: the role of music within the southern Ewe funeral ceremony JAMES BURNS	158
As if the composer is dead MIEKO KANNO	170
A musical matter of life and death: the morality of mortality and the coverage of Amy Winehouse’s death in the UK press PAULA HEARSUM	182
CALL FOR PAPERS	200