

Manthia Diawara

African Cinema

politics & culture

*indiana university press
bloomington & indianapolis*

contents

acknowledgments	vi
introduction	vii
I. Anglophone African Production	1
II. Zairian Production	12
III. France's Contribution to the Development of Film Production in Africa	21
IV. The Artist as the Leader of the Revolution: The History of the Fédération Panafricaine des Cinéastes	35
V. The Situation of National and International Film Production in Francophone Africa	51
VI. Film Production in Lusophone Africa: Toward the Kuxa Kenema in Mozambique	88
VII. Film Distribution and Exhibition in Francophone Africa	104
VIII. The Present Situation of the Film Industry in Anglophone Africa	116
IX. African Cinema and Festivals: FESPACO	128
X. African Cinema Today	140
notes	167
bibliography	178
index	185