

Contents

Contributors	xi
Foreword	xiii
Preface	xv
Introduction: Social Categories Matter	3
Shaun Wiley, Gina Philogene, and Tracey A. Revenson
Part I. Theoretical Foundations	9
1. Self, Social Identity, and Stigma: Through Kay Deaux's Lens	11
Brenda Major
2. Understanding Social Categories: An Epistemological Journey	31
Gina Philogene
3. Extraordinary Takes on "Ordinary Life": Categories of Sex, Gender, and Identity in the Work of Kay Deaux	45
Frances Cherry
Part II. Gender	61
4. Women as Leaders: Progress Through the Labyrinth	63
Alice H. Eagly
5. Linking Personal and Social Histories With Collective Identity Narratives	83
Nicola Curtin and Abigail J. Stewart
6. Standing at the Crossroads of Identity: An Intersectional Approach to Women's Social Identities and Political Consciousness	103
Ronni Michelle Greenwood
Part III. Immigration	131
7. The Dehumanization of Refugees: Determinants and Consequences	133
Victoria M. Esses, Scott Veenliet, and Stelian Medianu

CONTENTS

8. Xenophobia and How to Fight It: Immigrants as the Quintessential “Other”	151
Susan T. Fiske and Tiane L. Lee
9. The Dynamics of Multicultural Identities	165
Ying-yi Hong
Part IV. Looking Back and Moving Forward	187
10. Building Solidarity Across Difference: Social Identity, Intersectionality, and Collective Action for Social Change	189
Shaun Wiley and Nida Bikmen
11. Categories We Live By	205
Kay Deaux
Index	219
About the Editors	227
