Table of Contents

Introduction	Church and civil society – German and South African perspectives	i
Chapter 1	Religion and civil societies Michael Welker	1
Chapter 2	Kingdom, church and civil society – a theological paradigm for civil action JM (Koos) Vorster	15
Chapter 3	Fragile values, shared convictions and group agency – civil society through the lens of inferentialism Thomas Renkert	33
Chapter 4	Religion and civil society in "South Africa"? Searching for a grammar for life together Dirkie Smit	63
Chapter 5	Religious communities, churches and civil society Gregor Etzelmüller	107
Chapter 6	Assessing the role of the South African Council of Churches in democratic South Africa (1994-2014) Nico Vorster	127
Chapter 7	The role of churches and NGOs in civil society – a South African case study RA Koegelenberg	161
Chapter 8	From Marikana to believers eating snakes, ants, underwear and rats cheerfully – black theology of liberation in a time of empire and life-threatening faith praxis Rothney Tshaka	189
Chapter 9	Stateless in South Africa – engaging (public) theologically with Hannah Arendt Magriet de Villiers	207
Chapter 10	The sending of the church and civil society – a test case for a comprehensive missional paradigm Hanna Reichel	229

Bibliografische Informationen
http://d-nb.info/1139464078

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

Chapter 11 Orientating Christian civil society participants for their role in anti-corruption dialogue – a practical theological perspective
Friedrich (Fritz) W de Wet 259

Chapter 12 Civil displacement and the human quest for xenodochia (safe spaces of refuge) and unqualified hospitality – on becoming a caring, compassionate community in a pastoral approach to practising faith in the public space and global arena of 'civil society'
Daniël J Louw 279

Chapter 13 Diaconia as an ecclesial place in civil society – reflections from the German context
Johannes Eurich 311

Chapter 14 Faith and health care in sub-Saharan Africa – an ethical evaluation of faith-based organisations
Riaan Rheeder 333

Chapter 15 An active South African civil society for the common good
Nico Koopman 369