

Table of Contents

List of Figures.....	9
List of Tables	13
List of Images	17
Acknowledgments.....	19
Introduction
‘Looking East, looking West and looking inside’	21
From an outside to inside focus	21
I. A known unknown	24
II. Which case?	28
III. Is it all geopolitics?	35
IV. Towards Ukraine’s internally driven development? ...	39
V. What the Ukrainian case can teach the West?	47
VI. Organisation of the book.....	48
Chapter 1 ‘Lessons of history:
At the crossroads between various paths’	57
Introduction: a place between two borderlands	57
I. Longue durée and courte durée.....	61
II. Myths of the nation-state in the making	76
Conclusions	103
Chapter 2 ‘Value of freedom:
The case of the post-Soviet Ukraine’	107
Introduction	107
I. Freedom: instrumental and terminal values	111
II. Qualitative and quantitative approaches to assessing the value of freedom.....	118

III. Sources of information.....	120
IV. Unexplained components of freedom.....	125
Conclusion.....	134
Chapter 3 'Mass protests in 2013–2014: The Revolution of Dignity or EuroMaidan?'	139
Introduction	139
I. Repertoires of collective action: Between singularity and modularity.....	141
II. Case study of Maidan in 2013.....	151
III. Sources of information.....	154
IV. Analysis	157
Conclusion.....	172
Appendix.....	174
Chapter 4 'Images of the protests: A comparative analysis of the Ukrainian and Russian protesters'	179
Introduction	179
I. Sources of the data on mass protests: an overview ...	183
II. Sociological profile of protesters in Moscow and Kyiv	197
III. Internal dynamics of the Ukrainian protests.....	205
IV. Visual records compared with the other sources of data on mass protests	210
Conclusion.....	212
Appendix.....	215
Chapter 5 'Undeclared war: Invisible and visible forms of Russia's domination'	223
Introduction	223
I. Techniques of power: from force to domination by virtue of a constellation of interests	224

II. Markets versus empires.....	227
III. Market-based empires	234
IV. The 2014 Ukrainian crisis through the lens of the power triad.....	236
Conclusions: The price of comfort and opulence	247
Chapter 6 'Transition impossible?
Ukraine between violence and power'	251
Introduction	251
II. Conflicting discourses on power.....	253
III. Ukraine as a case in point.....	260
IV. Path-dependence and changes in the perception of power	265
Conclusions.....	276
Chapter 7 'Honour and human rights:
A comparative study of Ukraine and Russia'	279
Introduction	279
I. Human rights and honour in the context of dignity..	282
II. Research design and sources of data	290
III. Discussion: between honour and human rights	294
Conclusion.....	312
Chapter 8 'Ukrainian economic thought at the crossroads'	315
Introduction	315
I. From an outside to inside focus in economic sciences	315
II. Current state of economic sciences in Ukraine	320
III. Need for Ukrainian economists' greater contribution to nation-state building	329
Conclusions.....	333

Chapter 9 ‘The national market in the making’	335
Introduction	335
I. Externally driven economy	338
II. The national market: a survival kit or an engine of development?	346
III. Case of the timber industry: tensions between open economy and the national market.....	355
Conclusion.....	361
Chapter 10 ‘Volunteers: Actors of internal growth’	363
Introduction	363
I. Types and functions of volunteerism	367
II. Data and methods	380
III. Portrait of Ukraine’s volunteers	383
IV. Social innovations made by Ukrainian volunteers..	399
Conclusion.....	405
Annex A.....	407
Annex B.....	410
Conclusion ‘Guiding or helping hand? On the role of foreign assistance’	413
I. On an emerging concept of the Ukrainian nation	414
II. On the role of foreign assistance and aid.....	424
References	443
Index.....	475