

Table of contents

CHAPTER I: The place of death in our societies: the constitutional right to life or die/ Medicalisation of death/ Religious Influence	13
Jeanne Mesmin d'Estienne, Lecturer at the University of Lyon II – Lumières, Avocat à la Cour, Discourses on the end of life, from politics to law: historical dynamics and contemporary perspectives.	13
Florence Bellivier, Professor at the University Paris Nanterre, Co-director of the Centre for Criminal Law and Criminology, The Influence of Bioethics on End-of-Life Legislation – Was Aldous Huxley a Visionary	20
Michael Eichberger, Richter Bundesverfassungsgericht a.D., Honorarprofessor Eberhard Karls University Tübingen, Judgment of the Federal Constitutional Court of February 26, 2020, on the Criminalisation of Assisted Suicide Services	29
Birgit Daiber, LL.M., Professor Seoul National University, South Korea, Human dignity in German civilisation	37
CHAPTER II: Treatment of dying patients: Treatment waiver, treatment discontinuation, palliative care, sedation	48
Prof. Dr. Tobias Lettl, LL.M. (EUR), University of Potsdam, Patient decree and help for dying (Euthanasia) in German law.	48
Louis-Charles Viossat, Lecturer Global Social Policy, Sciences Po, Palliative Care Strategy in France: What Lessons?	56
Kerstin Peglow, Professor, Université Paris Nanterre, Palliative care in Germany in the light of the decision of the Federal Constitutional Court of 26 February 2020	58
Sophie Garcelon, Ancien avocat, Consultante et Coach professionnel – Wingsanté, Deep and continuous sedation until death – 2 February, 2016 French law strengthening the rights of patients at the end of life	69

CHAPTER III: Application of end of life rules to vulnerable persons	79
Angie Schneider, PhD Privatdozentin, Universität Potsdam, End-of-life and terminal care for minors under German law	79
Stephanie Rohlfing-Dijoux, Professor University Paris Nanterre, The application of end-of life legislation to minors : A Comparative approach between French, German and English Law	90
Kartina A. Choong, Associate Professor University of Central Lancashire, UK, Re M (Declaration of Death of Child) [2020]: “No Best Interests to Consider”?	105
CHAPTER IV: Clarifying the boundaries between assisted suicide and other forms of ending one’s own life	115
Volker Lipp, Professor Dr. Dr. h. c., Georg-August-University Göttingen, Germany: « Euthanasia » – A Comparative Legal Perspective	115
Uwe Hellmann, Professor Universität Potsdam, The strengthening of patient autonomy in the case of medically assisted suicide by the 5th Criminal Senate of the BGH	135
Géraldine Demme, MCF, Paris Nanterre University, Assisted Dying under Swiss Law	143
CHAPTER V: Comparative law perspectives on end-of-life legislation: England – India – Japan	150
Dr. Richard Wai Ming Law, Consultant Physician in Acute Medicine, Department of Urgent Care, Tameside & Glossop NHS Foundation Trust, Ashton-under-Lyne, UK, End-of-Life Care in the UK from a Resource Allocation Perspective	150
Tetsu Isobe, Professeur, Keio University (Tokyo), Haluna Kawashima, Project Associate Professor, Keio University (Tokyo), Hard law, soft law or self-discipline, which regulation for the medicine at the final stage of life in Japan?	166

Anand N Raut, PhD, Assistant Professor, Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai, Select Religious Practices and Death: An analysis from Indian legal Perspective	177
Prasannanshu Prasannanshu, Professor National Law University Delhi, The Legal and Linguo-Cultural Aspects of End of Life in India	188
Notes on contributors	201