

Contents

Preface vii

Introduction 1

Antillean Journey, by Daniel Maximin 13

Part One: Creolization and the Creative Imagination 21

1. Creoleness: The Crossroads of a Civilization? 23

Wilson Harris

2. The Caribbean: Marvelous Cradle-Hammock
and Painful Cornucopia 36

Carlos Guillermo Wilson

3. Who's Afraid of the Winti Spirit? 44

Astrid H. Roemer

4. Three Words toward Creolization 53

Antonio Benítez-Rojo

5. Dominicanyorkness: A Metropolitan
Discovery of the Triangle 62

Sherezada (Chiqui) Vicioso

6. Where Are All the Others? 68

Erna Brodber

7. A Brief History of My Country 76

Lourdes Vázquez

8. Writing and Creole Language Politics: Voice and Story 89

Merle Collins

9. The Stakes of Créolité 96

Ernest Pépin and Raphaël Confiant

10. Créolité without Creole Language? 101

Maryse Condé

11. The Victory of the Concubines and the Nannies 110

Frank Martinus Arion

12. The Process of Creolization in Haiti
and the Pitfalls of the Graphic Form 118

Jean Métellus

13. Race, Space, and the Poetics of Moving 129

M. Nourbese Philip

Afterword, by Yanick Lahens 155

Notes 165

Works Cited 173

Contributors 179

Index 185